Street Is Completed

Lefevre Road has been completed and was accepted as a completed street at the Monday night meeting of the borough council. Work has also begun on the portion of Mount Joy Street between North Market and Concord Streets.

According to a new act of state legislature, all special and rescheduled meetings of borough council must have notices posted to that effect on the building where the meetings are to be held. The group will place a type of frame on the fire house in order that the notices may be posted there prior to the meetings. Two new street lights were placed on Pinkerton Road and have been in operation for the past two weeks.

Park Neiss, chief of police, reported ten arrests for ignoring red traffic signals; two for reckless driving; 7 for no inspection certificates; 3 for improper passing; 3 for ignoring stop signs; and one for operating a motor vehicle with defective tail lights.

The councilmen voted for the purchase of a paint marker from Grigsby Company to be used by the borough employees in street striping. They also voted the purchase of a light for the borough truck. Bills amounting to over $6,000 were ordered paid. Lloyd Myers, president, was in charge of the meeting and the Rev. William Tillett, pastor of the Church of God, offered the invocation.
