The Young Ladies Bible Class of Trinity Lutheran met Wednesday evening at the Parish House. An inspirational devotional period was led by Mrs. W. L. Koder, Mrs. Winifred Linton and Mrs. Mary Hoffmaster on the theme of "The Family in The Community".
 Mrs. Koder enlightened the class of service needed for the Lancaster Lutheran Inner Mission. The group decided to donate garments to the Needlework Guild as a unit. Also, tea sandwiches would be made by Mrs. Sally Meminger and Mary Hoffmaster, to be donated and distributed by a committee from the ladies classes to the Lancaster County home.
 Instead of the usual meeting date for next month the class will meet Tuesday, Oct. 1st at 7:30 p.m. at the Parish House. Plans are being made for a Halloween Fellowship Social with the husbands invited as guests.
 Following the business meeting a white elephant sale and social was enjoyed by all!
