MISS SLSAN FELLEBAUM
Mr. and Mrs. Ellis H. Fellenbaum, 27 Poplar St., Mt. Joy, have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Susan M. Fellenbaum, to John M. Heisey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Musser Heisey, Mount Joy R2.

The double ring ceremony will take place at 2 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 19, in Donegal Presbyterian Church, Donegal Springs. The Rev. Harlan Durfee will officiate.

Miss Jane Greiner will preside at the organ, and Aaron Landis will be the vocalist. Miss Fellenbaum, who will be given in marriage by her father, will be attended by a sister, Miss Linda Fellenbaum as maid of honor.

Another sister, Miss Nancy Fellenbaum, and Miss Peggy Housel, Maytown, will serve as bridesmaids, and Sally Fellenbaum, sister of the bride-elect, will be flower girl.

James Drohan, Mount Joy R2, will attend the bridegroom-elect as best man. Ushers will be Glenn Eshleman, Mount Joy R2, and Ralph Buffenmyer, Florin. Randy Heisey, brother of the bridegroom-elect will be the ring bearer.

A reception in Hostetter's Banquet Hall, Mount Joy, will follow the ceremony, after which the couple will honeymoon in Florida. They will reside at Mount Joy R2 until spring.

Both Miss Fellenbaum and Mr. Heisey are graduates of Donegal high school. The bride-elect is employed by Dr. Herbert K. Cooper, Lancaster, and the bridegroom-elect is in business with his father.

It's a fact that:

your annual gasoline tax bill is $56.76!
The average motorist pays $56.76 in direct gasoline taxes every year! That's because for every dollar you spend for fuel you pay an additional 40 cents* in direct federal and state taxes.
However, gasoline itself is still reasonably priced. Since 1925, food prices have increased 71%, clothing 66%—yet gasoline itself is up only 12.1%. Yes, in spite of high taxes with today's gasoline you're driving a real bargain!

ABUNDANT LIFE

BY ORAL ROBERTS

LITTLE GIRL SAVED FROM BLINDNESS

This was the headline, a few weeks ago, of an article in "Die Landstem", Capetown, South Africa, an African weekly newspaper. The article below reads: "Thus the parents of this ten-year-old daughter testify in a letter to Die Landstem. She is saved from blindness through prayer."
Mr. A. E. Krause of 35 Hof Street, West Bank, Outshoorn, Cape Province, South Africa, writes:

"I can give you the addresses of many people who know about this case and who have known Naomi from birth. Our minister, teacher, principal, and our neighbors will confirm what I'm going to tell you now.
"Naomi was rapidly going blind. She was born with weak eyes and each year she had to visit the specialists who prescribed stronger lenses for her glasses, since they could do no more for her. When she paid her last visit to the specialist on October 19, 1956, she was told that not even an operation could prevent her eyes getting weaker.
In fact, she couldn't see too well with the stronger glasses."
"Then the parents read that an evangelist was due to hold a series of meetings in Johannesburg in January of this year. As a last desperate resource they went to the meetings. On the Monday night this minister prayed for her and on Tuesday morning she could see clearly. Now she can read the smallest print without glasses."
"Her teacher at first could not believe that Naomi could read

"White Doctor", is an hour-long documentary film on the work of a missionary doctor in a remote village of the Belgian Congo. Originally televised last November as a part of the "March of Medicine" series, the film has drawn an overwhelming response from churchmen. The general public will want to share in this excellent presentation of a little publicized

When Christ was on earth His heart was always open to the needs of the suffering humanity. One day the people came in such vast numbers for healing that the sick began to faint and the concourse of suffering people moved restlessly toward the Healer. Matthew says, the Saviour "was moved with compassion" and healed the sick" (Matt. 14:14).
Today He still moves among us. He is still ready to hear your prayer.

Scout News

The Scout of the month is John Gates, son of Dr. and Mrs. John Gates. He was chosen because of his scouting activities of the past month.

Local Boy Scout Troop 39 has a food stand at the fair grounds and is specializing in baked ham sandwiches again this year.

The troop also would like to thank Monroe Snavelly for the use of his truck in the parade and also the mothers for baking the hams.
