No Solution Found For Stauffertown

About fifty persons attended a special meeting for resilents of Stauffertown Tueslay evening in the local Fire Iouse. The meeting, called to order by Jay Sherk, Jr., was urned over to the group's awyer, Alexander Stein, of Lancaster.

Mr. Stein reviewed the sitnation to date but was unable to supply any concrete ideas for a solution. No copies of reports on tests made by the wo pipe line companies and the Public Utility Commission were available. Neither the residents of the the area nor their attorney have been given copies of the tests or he meetings of the groups which were held in Lancaster. Manufacturers Light and Heat Company, Southern Pipeline Company, the PUC and the State Police representatives met in special meetings recently but none of the firms or the state group released copies to the residents or to their attorney.

Paul Z. Knier, county fire marshall, and Jacob Weber, president of the county fire-
