The Bulletin, Mount Joy, Pa. Thursday, October 24 3

By Nancy Rainbolt
Two favorites of mine that are fighting for recognition are "I'll Remember Today" and "My How The Time Goes By", both by Patti Page. Billy Williams made quite a sensation with his "Sit Right Down and Write Myself a Letter". Now he is doing alright with "Got a Date with an Angel".

Ricky Nelson is also hitting it off real good at the present time with "Be Bop Baby" and "Have I Told You Lately That I Love You?". "Peanuts" with Little Joe and the Thrillers has been around some little time but is still a nice catchy tune. Since the Crickets are everyone's favorite since "That'll Be the Day" became such a big hit—they have recorded an album which includes their current hit, and others, entitled, "Music to do Your Algebra By".

A beautiful number "All the Way" is presented by Frank Sinatra. This has a qualification of becoming one of Frank's standards. "Silhouettes" has hit this part of the country by storm. It is done by a new group, Steve Gibson and the Red Caps. Another good one, "Could This Be Magic", by The Dubs.

There are two versions of a pretty song, "Sayonara" out by Eddie Fisher and Jodie Sands. This is a release from the movie of the same name starring Marlin Brando. The Everly Brothers are just about the most popular fellows around, with their rocket success, "Wake Up Little Susie". This has been out only a few weeks, and already has the number three position around the country. "Honeycomb" by Jimmie Rodgers has the coveted No. 1 rating with "Tammy", by Debbie Reynolds, No. 2. We mustn't forget Elvis. Perhaps some of you had the idea he was maybe slipping out of the picture—well, you shall change your mind when you hear his two latest, "Jail House Rock", and "Treat Me Nice". They are on the upgrade at a rapid pace.

Another new one with a nice beat that is fast catching on, is Perry Como's "Just Born".

He spent most of his life around Florin and had formerly been a farmer and worked in the Florin tobacco warehouse. His son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John B. Wittel, Florin, with whom he formerly resided, visited him on Sunday to help him celebrate. Harry Derr, Mt. Joy, is also a son.
