'Way Back When

By Martha Rainbolt

50 YEARS AGO
 November 6, 1907

A Halloween party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sylvester Dearbeck on Thursday evening when the following guests were entertained: Misses Freda Willer, Elizabeth Peoples, Amelia Peoples, Daisy Pannabecker, Margaret Rahm, Clara Rahm, Matilda Mumma, Esther Frank, Carrie Frank, Mary Eshleman, Martha Eshleman, Mary Anna, Margaret, and Sylvester Dearbeck, Mark Mumma, Mrs. Harry Peoples and daughter Mary.

President Longenecker has called a special meeting of Borough Council to convene this evening at 7 o'clock for the purpose of taking action on the Bube water matter.

The parties who on Halloween night took John Hauenstein's buckboard and ran it into the creek at Reist's Creamery are all known and may be obligated to pay for their fun.

Mrs. Willis Weaver, near town planted two dozen egg plant stalks and gathered from them 170 egg plants. That is a wonderful yield.

Mr. C. V. Fite has opened a fruit store and meat market in the Frank Hershey store-room on East Main Street. He carries a fine line of all kinds of fruit and meats.

Mr. John L. Schroll, on Mt. Joy street, who has been our police officer here for some time, resigned yesterday to take effect immediately.

Rufus Ressler and family moved to the Ressler farm, which they recently purchased.

While fishing in the Susquehanna river near the Marietta Depot recently with several others Martin "Tiny" Heisey, of Rheems had an unusual experience. He was fishing from a boat, smoking a cigar at the time. He threw the cigar butt into the river and about the time it struck the water it was "nailed" by a fish. Mr. Heisey immediately cast his line to the spot and as it struck the water Mr. Fish took the bait. "Tiny" landed a ten inch bass.

While preparing a ringneck pheasant which had been shot opening day Mrs. Sylvester Hendrix found a good sized marble in the bird's stomach. The marble is on display in the Bulletin window.

Church To Hold Annual Bazaar

The annual Christmas Bazaar of the Mount Joy Presbyterian church will be held in the church Nov. 30 from 12 noon until 9 p.m.

There will be booths of Christmas gifts, aprons, children's items, doll clothes, toys, pies and cakes, Christmas wrappings, and a Christmas gift tree.

Also planned is a booth of "trifles and treasures," and a pantry shelf stocked with home made jellies, pickles and candies.

Snacks will be served also during the day.

A dog's tongue is the only part of its body that can perspire.

ALL VOLUNTARY Swigert Backs Plan To Hire Handicapped

"The voluntary nature of the national hire-the-handicapped program in the United States is the principal reason for its continuing success, Ernest G. Swigert, president of NAM, wrote in an editorial for a recent issue of 'Performance,' monthly publication of President Eisenhower's Committee on Employment of the Physically Handicapped.

"... American industry," he said, "has every right to be proud of its attitude toward the physically handicapped, and of its record in assisting rehabilitation and providing jobs."

Mutual Satisfaction
 "Employed in a job as good as his skills permit—in a job he wants and in which his employer is happy to have him—the handicapped employee in American industry holds his head high because he is making it under his own power. That is the most precious thing in the world to anyone who has suffered a disability."

Mr. Swigert, on behalf of the N.A.M., also extended congratulations to the chairman and staff of the President's Committee on the occasion of its tenth anniversary.

Two-Way Street
 The Portland, Oregon industrialist pointed out that "this whole activity has not only given the handicapped individual the opportunity to take his rightful place in society, but has also benefited the American economy by his productive contribution."

Mr. Swigert said NAM has and will continue to encourage the employment of handicapped persons where and when possible by the Association's more than 21,500 members and by all business and industry.
