ABUNDANT LIFE BY ORAL ROBERTS

THERE'S A WAY WHERE THERE'S A WILL

The crowd is so densely packed that no one can get through. Four men stand at the edge of the overflow carrying a paralyzed man on a hammock slung between them. We don't know how or why they happen to be together except that they have one purpose. However, one thing is sure—one of their number is suffering and these four are determined to help him find deliverance from his sickness.

Begging, pleading, trying to press through, they find their way completely blocked—and yet—they are not blocked! For where there is a will there is a way! And there is a way where there is a will to find it.

One of them is lifted to the roof by the others. Then he takes the hand of another and helps him up. These two in turn seize the arms of the paralyzed man and pull him up and finally the other two are on the roof. Then, they tear a hole in it, lower the hammock in their strong hands and lo, the man found his healing!

This story I have just related happened nearly 2,000 years ago, but read about a similar one—a twentieth century miracle that happened in one of our Crusades:

"This was the closing night of the Oral Roberts Crusade in Danville, Virginia. It looked as though it was my last and only chance to be healed.

"I had been wounded in World War II. For twelve years I had struggled through the streets of my home town, burdened with a brace and cane, dragging along a useless, shrunken leg.

"I stood in the congregation; the hopelessness of my condition engulfed me. The uselessness of trying to get into the prayer line shrouded my mind. 'After all,' I thought, 'who am I among so many who need healing?'

"I listened to the message. Finally came the long awaited moment—the prayer line.

"I had given up all hope of healing upon these things. Suddenly he stopped praying for people and said, 'If there is an afflicted person here, place your hand on the afflicted part of your body and pray with me the prayer of faith—'God will heal you.'

"I placed my hand upon my shriveled, lifeless leg and called upon God with a sincere heart. Before I finished praying, the power of God rocketed through my leg with such force and energy that it snapped the straps that held the brace. God had instantly straightened my leg and healed me!"

There is much more to the great testimony just quoted, but I want you to know this—you can reach Christ for yourself and others if you really mean business. Know this: If any two agree in prayer upon a whole-some thing and never give up their faith in God, the results are guaranteed.
