

Big Crowd Turns Out For First Wrestling Match At Donegal

Approximately 100 persons turned out to see the first public wrestling match at Donegal high school's first home match for the season on Monday night. Grant Miller, coach, said that the boys did better than was expected. He feels that the boys have a good attitude and have a good potential for this year. Wrestling was started as a sport during last year's school year. This year, the boys will play all non-league games but next year the school is expected to enter league competition.

Monday night's results proved a win for the Hempfield high school wrestlers when they defeated the locals 36 to 22. The match was one in which every weight class but one was decided by a pin. Not until the eighth match did a loser manage to avoid being pinned. Captain Oberholtzer, Hempfield, decisively won by a 4-0 score. Donegal's captain, Ronald Sager, also won his match pinning Arthur Bigler in the heavyweight class.

David Hess, Robert Brandt, Jerry Bradley and Ronald Sager, of Donegal defeated their Hempfield opponents, Lee Ellis, Jack Bigler, John Musser and Arthur Bigler. Hempfield wins were Robert Aument over Jay Kaylor, Barry Lebus over Robert Shirk; Richard Long over James Harsh Lee Saylor over Kenneth Funk, Ray Wiley over Clair Ginder, Ray Oberholtzer over Richard Ober, Robert Smith over Ray Frey.

The next match for Donegal will be another home match, Jan. 9, 7:30 p.m. against the West York high school wrestling team. Preliminary bouts will begin at 7 p.m.

All Children Invited To Legion's Party

All the children of Mount Joy and vicinity are invited to attend the annual Christmas party Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 24, at the Joy Theatre.

The doors of the theatre will open at 1:30 p.m. and the films will be shown at 2 p.m. The children will be treated with gifts following the showing of the picture.

This party is an annual affair for the children in the area and there is no admission.

Joycees Hold Progressive Dinner Party

Joycees observed the holiday season with a progressive dinner Tuesday evening at four of the members' homes. The twenty-three members had an appetizer at the home of Mrs. Harold Zimmerman, Jr.; main course at the home of Mrs. Charles Ryman; and dessert at the home of Mrs. Gassman.

During the business meeting the group voted to donate $15 to the Community Christmas Decorations committee. The group accepted an invitation to visit the Landisville Jaycees Mar. 3. A thank-you letter was read from the Millersville Jaycees thanking the local group for their help in getting the Millersville charter started. Mrs. Harold Zimmerman, Jr., president, was in charge of the business meeting.

Union National Holds Party

The annual Christmas party of the directors, employees, and friends of the Union National Mount Joy Bank was held Wednesday evening, December 11, at Hostetter's banquet hall. Mr. Harvey Rettew, vice president, served as the chairman and Mr. Alvin Reist as co-chairman.

Warren Bates of Mt. Joy, a student of the Elizabethtown College, rendered a number of vocal selections. He was accompanied by Miss Mary Nolt organist and choir director of the Church of God of Landisville, Miss Nolt is a senior in the Hempfield Twp. Schools.

Dr. John Price, curator of Franklin & Marshall College Museum was guest speaker.

The payment of a year-end bonus to the employees was announced and a gift from the employees was presented to Samuel Hinkle.

Decorations were in charge of Mrs. Clyde H. Hottenstein, Mrs. Alvin J. Reist and Mrs. Harvey Rettew.

Union National Holds Party

The annual Christmas party of the directors, employees, and friends of the Union National Mount Joy Bank was held Wednesday evening, December 11, at Hostetter's banquet hall. Mr. Harvey Rettew, vice president, served as the chairman and Mr. Alvin Reist as co-chairman.

Warren Bates of Mt. Joy, a student of the Elizabethtown College, rendered a number of vocal selections. He was accompanied by Miss Mary Nolt organist and choir director of the Church of God of Landisville, Miss Nolt is a senior in the Hempfield Twp. Schools.

Dr. John Price, curator of Franklin & Marshall College Museum was guest speaker.

The payment of a year-end bonus to the employees was announced and a gift from the employees was presented to Samuel Hinkle.

Decorations were in charge of Mrs. Clyde H. Hottenstein, Mrs. Alvin J. Reist and Mrs. Harvey Rettew.

Parts In Play At E'town

A Mount Joy boy will take part and students from Marietta and Salunga will be members of the production staffs as Elizabethtown college presents an original Christmas play on Thursday, Dec. 19.

Jay Greider, senior, will play the part of the Innkeeper in the original play, "Once To Every Man," written by Mrs. Clarence G. Enterline, dramatics coach of the school.

Milton Mowrer Jr. of Marietta and John Way Jr. of Salunga are members of the production staff.

Parts In Play At E'town

A Mount Joy boy will take part and students from Marietta and Salunga will be members of the production staffs as Elizabethtown college presents an original Christmas play on Thursday, Dec. 19.

Jay Greider, senior, will play the part of the Innkeeper in the original play, "Once To Every Man," written by Mrs. Clarence G. Enterline, dramatics coach of the school.

Milton Mowrer Jr. of Marietta and John Way Jr. of Salunga are members of the production staff.

Parts In Play At E'town

A Mount Joy boy will take part and students from Marietta and Salunga will be members of the production staffs as Elizabethtown college presents an original Christmas play on Thursday, Dec. 19.

Jay Greider, senior, will play the part of the Innkeeper in the original play, "Once To Every Man," written by Mrs. Clarence G. Enterline, dramatics coach of the school.

Milton Mowrer Jr. of Marietta and John Way Jr. of Salunga are members of the production staff.

To Report New Families Call OL 3-6624

To Report New Families Call OL 3-6624

Named No. 2 Boy In State

A local boy was one of two chosen in the state of Pennsylvania as the outstanding boys working with Guernsey herds. Kenneth Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young, Mount Joy R1, will receive $100 from the Pennsylvania State Guernsey Breeders Association at a special banquet in January.

Upon the recommendation of the Future Farmers of America advisory committee, the breeders association named Kenneth the No. 2 boy in the state. Kenneth received a letter notifying him of the honor Tuesday from the secretary of the association. The special banquet will be held at the Scottish Rites Temple, Harrisburg, January 14, at 12:00 noon. He will be accompanied by Grant Miller, vocational agriculture instructor at Donegal.

Kenneth, who is a senior at Donegal high school, started his herd two years ago when he was a sophomore with two purebred Guernseys. At the present time, he has increased his herd to ten heifers and one bull. In addition to carrying this project he also farms a 70-acre farm. This farm he rented is located near his home on Mount Joy R1. He farmed the plot last spring and summer.

Named No. 2 Boy In State

A local boy was one of two chosen in the state of Pennsylvania as the outstanding boys working with Guernsey herds. Kenneth Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young, Mount Joy R1, will receive $100 from the Pennsylvania State Guernsey Breeders Association at a special banquet in January.

Upon the recommendation of the Future Farmers of America advisory committee, the breeders association named Kenneth the No. 2 boy in the state. Kenneth received a letter notifying him of the honor Tuesday from the secretary of the association. The special banquet will be held at the Scottish Rites Temple, Harrisburg, January 14, at 12:00 noon. He will be accompanied by Grant Miller, vocational agriculture instructor at Donegal.

Kenneth, who is a senior at Donegal high school, started his herd two years ago when he was a sophomore with two purebred Guernseys. At the present time, he has increased his herd to ten heifers and one bull. In addition to carrying this project he also farms a 70-acre farm. This farm he rented is located near his home on Mount Joy R1. He farmed the plot last spring and summer.

Teen-Age Dance Is Saturday

The Christmas Teen-Age Dance will be held Saturday night in the local firehouse sponsored by the ladies auxiliary of the fire company. The teenagers are asked to bring their own records for the dance. All the admission received for the night's dance will be given to the Charlie Zeller fund it was announced Tuesday.

In answer to requests as to what the age limit is for the dances, the committee announced that the teenagers are to be from twelve to nineteen.

A special New Year's Eve dance has been planned for Dec. 31. The hours of the dance will be changed to 9:30 to 12:30. This party, too, will be a record dance and teenagers are asked to bring their favorites.

Teen-Age Dance Is Saturday

The Christmas Teen-Age Dance will be held Saturday night in the local firehouse sponsored by the ladies auxiliary of the fire company. The teenagers are asked to bring their own records for the dance. All the admission received for the night's dance will be given to the Charlie Zeller fund it was announced Tuesday.

In answer to requests as to what the age limit is for the dances, the committee announced that the teenagers are to be from twelve to nineteen.

A special New Year's Eve dance has been planned for Dec. 31. The hours of the dance will be changed to 9:30 to 12:30. This party, too, will be a record dance and teenagers are asked to bring their favorites.

Unofficial Total Is Released

Although an official total has not been released for the autumn Community Chest Drive in Mount Joy, the total has reached the $5,600 mark. A final meeting has been planned for January when the total will be announced. Also at this meeting plans will be made for the coming year's activities for the group.

This total already exceeds last year's total which was $5,283.29. Charles Ryman is chairman of this year's drive.

Unofficial Total Is Released

Although an official total has not been released for the autumn Community Chest Drive in Mount Joy, the total has reached the $5,600 mark. A final meeting has been planned for January when the total will be announced. Also at this meeting plans will be made for the coming year's activities for the group.

This total already exceeds last year's total which was $5,283.29. Charles Ryman is chairman of this year's drive.

WIN TALENT ASSEMBLY

Miss Dorothy Fletcher was named the winner of the senior talent assembly at Donegal high school last Friday. Miss Fletcher playing a piano solo. John Bender was named runner-up for the day. Mr. Bender sang a baritone solo.

Following the time when all the grades have had a talent assembly, a special assembly program has been planned for all the winners to compete.

WIN TALENT ASSEMBLY

Miss Dorothy Fletcher was named the winner of the senior talent assembly at Donegal high school last Friday. Miss Fletcher playing a piano solo. John Bender was named runner-up for the day. Mr. Bender sang a baritone solo.

Following the time when all the grades have had a talent assembly, a special assembly program has been planned for all the winners to compete.

The Mount Joy BULLETIN

FIFTY-EIGHTH YEAR, NO. 27 MOUNT JOY, PA., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1957 SEVEN CENTS PER COPY

Outstanding Young Man To Be Given Award

For the first time in Mount Joy, a DSA (Distinguished Service Award) will be awarded to some young man between the ages of 21 and 35. The award is being sponsored by the Mount Joy Jaycees and the winner will be named at a Special Jaycee Week banquet Friday, January 17.

"Junior Chamber of Commerce Week" is sponsored annually by the USJCC and its affiliated state and local organizations the third week of January. The three purposes for Jaycee week are to commemorate the founding of the United States Junior Chamber of Commerce which occurred in St. Louis, Missouri, Jan. 21, 1920; to present a Distinguished Service Award to the young man in each community who has been nominated by his fellow citizens in recognition for his civic service during the past year; and to more fully inform the public of the scope, aims and ideals of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Residents are asked to nominate men for the honor. In order to nominate a candidate residents are asked to contact Michael Pricko at the Bulletin or members of the committee in charge, Leonard Johnson, chairman, Abram Koser, O. K. Snyder, Jr. and John Landis. Necessary nomination forms will be forwarded to the persons nominating individuals.

The achievements by which the candidates will be judged are his contribution to his community welfare during the past year, his participation in all-around community activities, evidence of lasting contribution to community activities, exhibition of leadership, ability, evidence of personal or business progress, co-operation with individuals and civic organizations and reasons for recommendation.

The Judging Committee will be composed of prominent citizens of the community who are over the age of 35. The decision of the committee will be final. In order to allow the judges one week for investigation and a decision, the completed nomination forms must be received by January 10.

Church Of God To Present Cantata Sunday

The Mount Joy Church of God Choir will present the Christmas Cantata "The Echo of Christmas" Sunday, Dec. 22, at 7:30 p.m. This Cantata is based upon traditional carols including the French Carol "He Is Born," Austrian Carols "Who Knocks So Late?" and "The Echo Carol," Polish Carols "Lullaby Jesus" and "Whither are Ye Going?" German Carol "I Stand Beside Thy Cradle," Bohemian Carol "God Gave Us Christ," Crusader's Carol "Beautiful Savior," and Martin Luther's Choral "From Heaven Above" harmonized by J. S. Bach.

Members of the choir are: First Sopranos: Miss Sandra Eshelman, Mrs. Clyde Mumper, Miss Mae Zink and Miss Sylvia Mumper; Second Sopranos: Miss Loretta Eshelman, Mrs. David Newcomer, Jr., Miss Betty Jane Charles, and Mrs. Jay Barnhart, Sr.; Tenors: Mr. David Weidman, Mr. Lester Eshelman, Mr. George Broske and Mr. Jay Barnhart, Sr.; Basses: Mr. Barry Barnhart, Mr. Guy Myers, Mr. Robert Schroll II, and Mr. Ted Weidler.

Solo parts will be sung by Miss Sandra Eshelman, Mrs. Clyde Mumper, Miss Betty Jane Charles, Mrs. Charles Hershey, Mr. George Broske, and Mr. David Weidman.

Director of the Choir is Mrs. George F. Broske, organist, who will present a fifteen-minute recital prior to the rendition of the Cantata. Everyone is cordially invited to attend this service.

Adult Farmers' Club Organizes

Following an organizational meeting Tuesday night, the proposed Adult Farmers Club of the Donegal area planned its first meeting tentatively for Monday, Jan. 6, at the school. Grant Miller, vocational agriculture instructor at the school, explained the purpose of the club and announced that the course will last from 12 to 15 weeks. It will cover general farm mechanics and shop work.

During the sessions, farmer students will be able to bring in machinery needing repairs. They will be taught welding, metal work and other skills which can aid them in home repair of farm equipment.

Persons who were not able to attend the preliminary meeting at the school Tuesday night may contact Grant Miller at his home in order to enroll in the club. The prerequisite for the course is an interest in farming.

Lions Sponsor Christmas Party

Sherman Hill, director of the Boys Club Lancaster, was the guest speaker at Tuesday night's Ladies night meeting of the local Lions Club. He was introduced to the group by John Weirman.

Robert Stettler, Lancaster, provided special music on the electric organ. Santa Claus presented to the ladies and Lions in attendance. Mrs. Clyde Mumper was presented with a poinsettia plant and prizes were won by Mrs. Chas. Eshelman, Mrs. Howard Sutter and Mrs. John Prasto.

Lions who were in charge of the gifts were Charles Ashenfelter, Leonard Johnson and Henry Zephey.

Women Give Christmas Play

A play, "The Star's Light," was presented by the Mount Joy and Donegal Presbyterian Women's Association at their annual Christmas program in the Mount Joy church sanctuary.

The play's cast included Mrs. Wm. Workman, Mrs. Harold Billow, Mrs. Warren Foley and Mrs. Charles Ryman and was directed by Mrs. J. W. Heisey.

A voice choir was composed of Misses Eleanor Nancy Johnson, Charlotte Horning and Margie Sue Heisey with Mrs. W. Scott Heisey as solo voice.

The play was followed by a candlelight ceremony installing the new officers for the coming year.

The social hour featured a surprise baby shower as a farewell gesture for Mrs. Harlan C. Durfee, wife of the minister. Decorations were by Mrs. James Roberts and included an antique cradle filled with flowers and the show-tr gifts.

Refreshments were served by a committee from both churches to about 40 persons and the meeting closed with a Christmas Carol sing.

Children Attend Shopping Tour

Mount Joy Jaycees sponsored their annual shopping tour for the children of the Messiah Children's Home Saturday afternoon. Jaycee members escorted the children of the home through the local stores to buy their Christmas gifts. Armed with $5.00 bills and Christmas gifts, the men assisted the children in making their purchases.

Following the purchasing, the children were assisted in wrapping their gifts by the Jaycees at the firehouse. As a climax to their day, the children were given a treat at Tyndall's Store, West Main Street, by Frank Tyndall.

Robert Schroll was chairman of the annual Jaycee event.

CHOSEN TO WEAR GOLD BADGE

Barry Etsell was awarded the gold badge among the local elementary school patrolmen for the week. Barry was chosen to wear the honored badge for outstanding work last week when he shoveled the snow where the small children walked near his post. Charles Heaps, principal, offered a work of praise to the patrolmen at their regular meeting when he told them they were doing good jobs.

BIRTHS

Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Gantz, Manheim R4, a son, Tuesday, at Lancaster General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald R. Miller, 19 West Main Street, a son, last Friday, at Lancaster General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Clayton E. Swope, Maytown, a son, Friday, at Lancaster General Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl R. Sinner, Manheim R4, a son, Sunday, at Lancaster General Hospital.

Arrangements Made For Old - Timer Game

Plans for staging the fourth annual Mount Joy Old Timers basketball game on Thursday, Dec. 26, are completed. Ben Groff, promoter of the event, has announced this week.

Two games are slated, one beginning at 7:15 and following about an hour later by a second at the Mount Joy grade school.

The battle between the Ex high school stars of Mt. Joy and Donegal is expected to be a bang up affair, for most of the lads expected to participate are now playing basketball in one way or another and are in good shape for the struggle.

For Donegal, players expected include Jay Metzler, Alton Kugle, John Heistand, Bill Earhart, Don Raber, Pete Nissley, Charlie Groff, Jim Grove and John Mitchner.

Mount Joy will include George McCue, Don Germer, Gerry Wilson, Ben C. Groff, John Miller, Tom Zimmerman, Jim Booth, Harry Frey and possibly Ben Brown, Hen Klugh, John Bowman, Bill Zimmerman and Henry Becker.

Officials for the game will be LeRoy Simmons of Marietta; Dick Stark, Mt. Joy and Charles Hershey, Elizabeth town.

All players are welcome to turn out and play with the Old Timers and are urged to turn out and have part in the fun. There will be a practice at the grade school Tuesday evening, Dec. 24, at 6:30 p.m.

Mount Joy high stars are requested to wear light colored shirts for the game and Donegal dark.

No admission will be charged for the games but an offering will be taken for the Old Timers award fund.

Named Official Of Student Show

Dickinson College students have chosen Charles Mayer, of Mount Joy R1, a senior, to serve as the producer and music director of their annual musical show, the "Dickinson Follies."

A show written, staged, and directed entirely by students has been presented each year since 1949. This year's Follies will be presented March 13-16 on the campus.

Mayer has been active in the Follies in past years. He is a member of Phi Kappa Sigma fraternity and is majoring in history.

Eshleman Wins Scholarship

Ross Eshleman, a senior at Manchester College, North Manchester Indiana, was recently named as one of five winners of a Rural Life Scholarship loan of $300.

Eshleman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Eshleman, Box 166, Florin, and a graduate of E. Donegal high school. He is majoring in sociology at the college. Future plans include study at Bethany Biblical Seminary in Chicago in preparation for a pastorate in a rural church.

These scholarship loans of $300 each are granted each year by Mr. and Mrs. Era Weaver of Huntington, Ind., to deserving students who are interested in rural community careers.

First National Grants Dividends

A regular and a special dividend were declared Tuesday, Dec. 10th, at the meeting of the board of directors of the First National Bank.

A 3 per cent dividend for the six-months period ending Dec. 31, was made and a special dividend of 1 per cent for the same period was added. Both are payable Jan. 1.

Early Paper

Holidays which fall in the middle of the week cause awkward situations for weekly newspapers.

This year, Christmas falls in about the least convenient spot to satisfy all phases of the publishing business.

However, to solve the most problems, the Bulletin will be printed on Monday afternoon next week and distributed on Tuesday.

Thus—material to be included in next week's paper should be made available at once. In fact, the staff is hard at work as this issue goes to press to meet the earlier deadline for next week.

Family Doctor Can Not Be Contacted For Emergency, Physician on Call

Family doctor can not be contacted for emergency, physician on call

Sunday Dr. John Gates

Sunday Dr. John Gates

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

THE WEATHER

By Kenneth L. Drohan

Day	Temps.	Trace
We 11	22	37
Thu 12	12	25
Fri 13	17	29
Sat 14	17	38
Sun 15	25	48
Mon 16	31	38
Tue 17	25	45

High for year to date: 103
Low for year to date: 10

The current rain will end Friday followed by a fair and slightly colder weekend, with no snow expected. Temperatures will not be extremely low; only normal for this time of the year. Daytime temperatures over the weekend will be in the 35-45 degree range; nighttime readings mostly between 25 and 30 degrees. More rain is expected by Monday.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday

Mount Joy's Community Chorus will present its Christmas Concert and Carol Sing next Monday, Dec. 23, 8:30 p.m. in the Mount Joy Elementary School auditorium. The group set the time for 8:30 in order that persons interested in both the Scout carol sing and the concert might attend both. The Scout Carol sing will begin at 6:30 p.m.

Donald L. Trostle, Ephrata, will direct the production. He is an instrumental director at the McCaskey high school.

TO CONTINUE PRACTICE Both the basketball and the wrestling teams will practice during the Christmas vacation at Donegal high school.

Community Chorus To Give Christmas Concert Sunday