Mortuary Record

MARY ALBRIGHT
Miss Mary Albright, eighty-one, formerly of Marietta R1, East Donegal Twp., died at 11 p.m. last Wednesday in the Harrisburg Hospital where she had been a patient for the past week.

She was a daughter of the late Daniel and Eliza Sauder Albright and resided in East Donegal Twp. until ten years ago. Since then she has been residing at the home of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cooper, 309 W. 10th St., New Cumberland. Funeral services were held Sunday from the Hawthorne Funeral Home, Bainbridge.

FANNIE DIBLER
Miss Fannie Dibler, 77, a guest at the Long Home, Marietta and West End Ave., died at the home last Monday after an illness of a year.

She was born in Maytown, and was the daughter of the late John and Leola Jacobs Dibler. After retiring as a nurse, she was a guest at the home for the past eight years. She was a member of St. Luke United Church of Christ.

A sister, Lillian, wife of John W. Black of Pittsburgh is the only survivor.

The funeral services were held from the Groff Funeral Home Thursday morning. Interment was in the Maytown Union cemetery.

EDWARD G. MYERS
Edward G. Myers, 92, Salunga, a bank director and veteran well driller prior to his retirement 20 years ago died at 9:10 p.m. Sunday at the Lancaster General Hospital after a week's illness.

Myers, a charter member of the Board of Directors of the First National Bank, Landisville, started in the well drilling business in 1884 and retired in 1937.

He was born at Union Mills, Md., a son of the late Jesse and Margaret Myers and was a member of the Salunga Methodist Church, and a charter member of the Salunga Fire Company.

In addition he was a member of the Manheim Lodge, F. & A. M.; Lancaster Lodge of Perfection, the Harrisburg Consistory, Zemo Temple, Lancaster Forest 27, Tall Cedars of Lebanon; and Emanuel Lodge, IOOF, Lancaster.

Surviving are two sons, William C. Myers, Lancaster, and Paul C. Myers, Lincoln Highway East. Also surviving are 27 grandchildren, 43 great grandchildren and eight great great grandchildren.

ANNE GREENAWALT
Mrs. Annie F. Greenawalt, widow of the late Harry E. Greenawalt died early Thursday morning, Dec. 12 at the Harrisburg Hospital. Funeral services were held at the Snyder Funeral Home, Harrisburg, at 10:30 Monday morning.

Formerly of Mount Joy, Mrs. Greenawalt succumbed after a lingering illness. She was the widow of H. E. Greenawalt and lived at 331 9th St., New Cumberland.

Born in Mount Joy, she was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Moses Gantz. She had resided with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Strickler, Mount Joy for 12 years before moving to New Cumberland to reside with a son, Owen Greenawalt, in February.

She is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Givens, Cedar Crest College, Allentown, and Elizabeth, wife of Martin Strickler, Mt. Joy, and two sons, Owen Greenawalt, New Cumberland, and Howard Greenawalt, Harrisburg, and ten grandchildren.

HAROLD HEISEY
Harold G. Heisey, 43, of Rheems, died at 8:30 p.m. on Wednesday at St. Joseph's Hospital after a long illness.

Born in Mount Joy Township, he was a son of Mrs. Annie Gible Heisey, Florin, and was a resident of Rheems for 18 years. He was a member of the Union National Mount Joy Bank and was in connection with building and contracting, and to this end to deal in any and all kinds of material used in the business of building or contracting, and to purchase property for investment or resale, and generally to sell and deal in land and property both real and personal, and any interest therein.
