

Landisville - Salunga

By Richard Jones
Correspondent

J. Richard Nissley, Landisville, was elected president of the Hempfield Joint School Board last week at a meeting of the school group at the Hempfield high school. Nissley succeeds Ira Kauffman, Mountville, as head of the Joint board. Victor Lennox was elected vice-president. In other business, the law firm of Rohrer, Honoman, Newcomer and Musser was named as legal representatives for the joint board. The resignation of Mrs. Mary Eby Klaus was accepted at the meeting last week in Landisville. The English Department faculty at the Hempfield high school. Three prizes in each of three categories, most beautiful, best religious theme, and the most appealing to children will be awarded. First prize in each category will be a cash award of $20; second prize, $10; and third prize, $5. In addition to the nine cash awards, each of the nine winners will receive a decorated ceramic plate.

Judging for the holiday contest will be made Friday, Dec. 27. Service clubs participating are the Landisville Lions Club, the Hempfield Sertoma Club, and the Landisville - Salunga Sertoma Club. Lawrence Siefertowski, Lions Club, is general chairman for the joint contest committee.

The music department of Hempfield high school will present the second of two Yule music programs tonight at the Landisville auditorium beginning at 8 p.m. The annual Christmas musical this year is featuring an international theme, "Christmas Everywhere", with the pageant written by Miss Jean Kauffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kauffman, Mannheim R1, with the narration by Jon Fackler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fackler, Silver Spring. The program will use the talents of an estimated 375 students in four vocal groups and three instrumental groups. Richard L. Kline, who just this year joined the faculty of the Hempfield high school music department, is directing the musical and is being assisted by Miss Helen Souders, junior high school vocal music, and Miss Zoe
