

Florin Plans Community Carol Sing

Plans are completed for the annual Florin Community Carol Sing to be featured on Monday Dec. 23, 7:30 p.m. in front of the Florin branch of the First National Bank and Trust Company.

The Rev. John Fleck, pastor of the Elizabethtown Independent Church, will bring the Christmas story. He will give a special musical number. A male quartet consisting of Arthur Miller, Elizabethtown, first tenor; Martin Miller Florin, second tenor; Lester Mumma Mount Joy, first base; and Warren Reitzel Mount Joy, second base, will sing.

John Wray will direct the singing. Following the program all the children will be given a treat. The outdoor program is open to the public.

Gifts Are Given Flashlights

Flashlights were presented to the Cub Scouts at the Christmas party by Santa Claus Wednesday night in the local elementary school. Prior to the presentation, old-time hometown movies were shown to the group by Joseph Shaeffer.

Dances 2, 4 and 5 were tied with having the greatest number of families present at the dance meeting. Clyde Frindle, Clubmaster, was in charge of the meeting.

Class of Plans Service

"The Story of the Christmas Carols" will be presented Sunday night by the Christian Couples' Class of St. Mark's E. U. B. church. The evening service will include the story of the carols as presented by class members and members of the Youth Fellowship. Mrs. Glenn Forney is in charge of the service.

Advancements Are Made

Five Boy Scouts were advanced during a recent Court of Honor in the Scouthouse. Dennis Fackler and Robert Eshleman were advanced to Second Class Scouts and Joe Hart, Dennis Brown and Jeffrey Brown Tenderfoot.

Harold Etsell, Scoutmaster pinned on the badges; and John Gates and Richard Becker were in charge of the ceremony.

Last year, the collection in Mount Joy was $122.28 and in Florin, $43.55. Mrs. Alvin Bigler is chairman of the drive.

Teenagers who assisted with the drive in Mount Joy were Sue Mumma, Sheryl Brown, Patricia Phillips, Carol Kaylor, Carol West, Peggy Brill, Nancy Fellenbaum, Patricia Hartman, Jean Hartman, Sandra Kretzig, Marie Eber-son, Joan Shaeffer, Joanne Darrenkamp, Nancy Pennell.

Jerry Alleman, Carol Detweiler, Judy Nissley, Susan Stauffer, Patsy Shank and Carol Stettler.

Those who assisted in Florin were Eleanor Zielke, Barbara Shuman, Gary Vogel, Carlyn Bradley, Debra Wolgemuth and Kent Wolgemuth.

MISS PENNSYLVANIA SPEAKS AT F.T.A. MEET

Miss Pennsylvania, Miss Jennie Blatchford, was the guest speaker at the F.T.A. meeting last Friday which was attended by the Donegal high school F.T.A. Club. Miss Blatchford discussed the merits of going into the teaching profession. Miss Catharine Zeller and Miss Lily Martin accompanied the group to the Future Teachers of America meeting in the Central Dauphin high school.

TO PLAY HEMPFIELD AWAY FRIDAY

One more basketball game will be played by the Donegal high school Indians before the holiday vacation begins. Friday, Dec. 20, the Indians will play Hempfield on the Hempfield floor.

Following the vacation, the team will play Columbia high school on the home floor on Friday, Jan. 3.

SCOUTS SPONSOR CHRISTMAS DANCE

Girl Scout troop 170 held a Christmas dance at the firehouse last Saturday night. Each Scout brought a friend. Prizes were awarded for special dances; and refreshments were served.

Chaperons for the dance were Mrs. James Klinedinst, Mrs. Thomas O'Connor, Mrs. Earl Mowrer and Mrs. Earl Koser. The Scouts and leaders express their thanks to Marilyn Myers who operated the record player during the dance.

TWO PURCHASES MADE

Two purchases have been made for the music department of Donegal high school in addition to the new piece of electronic equipment received. An alto clarinet has been ordered. With the arrival of the alto clarinet, the clarinet section is completed. Additional black metal stands have also been ordered for the department. These stands are used for instrumental public presentations in place of the folding stands.

LIONS ENTERTAIN LADIES, CHILDREN

The Florin Lions Club held its annual Christmas Party at Hostetter's last Monday. The party was a family affair attended by forty adults and thirty-six children. Santa Claus presented the children and ladies with gifts.

Entertainment was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Staley who showed colored slides of their trip to California. Due to the holiday season there will be no meeting at the Clearview Diner Dec. 23.

LOCAL GIRL WAS CANDIDATE

Miss Charlotte Feeser, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel S. Miller, Jr. was a runner-up in the "Miss Naval Reserve for 1958". The queen Public Utilities Commission.

was crowned at the annual Christmas dance of the Lancaster Naval Reserve last Friday at Hotel Brunswick, Lancaster. Miss Feeser is a billing clerk for the Raub Supply Company.

PLAN PARTY

The annual Christmas party of the Mount Joy B.P.W. Club will be held next Monday, Dec. 23, at Hostetter's. The dinner party is scheduled for 6:30 p.m.

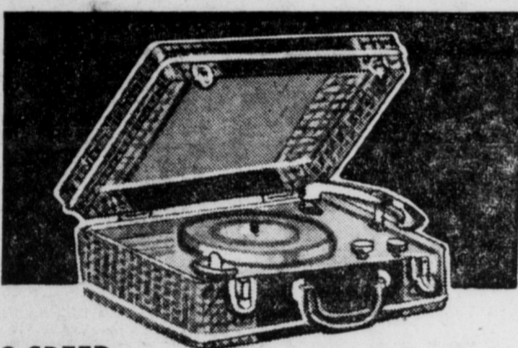

FUMES RETURN

Staufferstown residents reported that last week's heavy rains and high winds brought a return of the gas fumes and water contamination. At the present time, the residents are waiting for an analysis to be made by the Illinois Commission on suggestion of the Reserve for 1958". The queen Public Utilities Commission.
