Landisville - Salunga

By Richard Jones Correspondent

Hempfield high school closed out its varsity and junior high school basketball seasons with unpleasantness and joy, respectively. Bruce Gerlach, a junior, top scorer for the Black Knights varsity, was the victim of an injurious beating at the hands of a spectator Monday night when the Hempfield team played a postponed game at Elizabethtown. In the closing seconds of the game which saw E-town ahead 54-52, Fred Rudy, a Hempfield sophomore connected with a field goal which would have tied the game had a foul not been called on the Knights. E-town missed the charity toss and Gerlach grabbed the rebound and headed down the floor. At that instant, the final buzzer ending the game sounded, but was unheard due to the noise created by the impassioned fans. There was a scramble for the ball, and at the same time a surge of an estimated 100 spectators onto the playing floor. Fists flew thick and fast for a few seconds before order was finally restored by officials of both schools. Gerlach, while still on the floor, was struck twice in the face, receiving a severely fractured nose and possible internal head injuries yet to be determined. He was rushed to the offices of Dr. Richard L. Bryson, Landisville, by Elizabethtown coach Don Havestrick, accompanied by Hempfield's coach Clarence Mentzer. Bryson set the fracture and sent him home. Further tests and X-rays were taken at the Lancaster General Hospital on Tuesday morning. Elizabethtown police investigated and turned up two suspects. They were described as being "black leather jacket" clad, one of them having a beard, by witnesses at the scrap. Prosecution will undoubtedly be made pending positive identification. Two other Hempfield players received slight injuries in the scuffle. Robt. Eby, a senior, received a blow on the right eye, and Robert Riddle sustained a bruise of the neck. The two suspects were not students at the Elizabethtown school, according to school officials.

The Hempfield junior high school team defeated E-town Tuesday night in a section 1 play-off game held at the Lancaster Twp. Junior high school. Final score was 32-28. Both teams had identical records of 7-1 prior to the play-off tilt, with both once in their home contests. E-town got off to an early start with a 12-3 lead before Hempfield got the range and closed the gap to 17-14 at half time. Hempfield surged ahead in the third quarter and stayed there until the final whistle. The game was played without incident, although the gymnasium was packed with fans from both schools. Officials were George Bensinger and Grant Hurst.

Lawrence Cramer, of 238 Main St., Landisville, was elected president of the recently organized Hempfield high school Boosters Club last Monday night at a meeting of the citizens group at the Landisville Fire Hall. Other officers elected were Herman A. Ries, Barbara Ave., Landisville, vice-president; Clair Poff, secretary.

A number of people from this vicinity attended the concert rendered by the Gettysburg College Choir on Sunday at the Grace Lutheran Church, Lancaster.

Mr. Joseph Hollenbaugh has been vacationing in Florida for the past month.

Mrs. Elizabeth Beshler attended the funeral of both a sister and a brother during the past week.

Mr. Paul Beshler was at New York on business on Thursday and Friday of last week.

The Parents' Club met on Monday evening at the Maytown elementary school auditorium. Mr. Ralph Coleman was the speaker. He spoke about Report Cards and Achievement Tests.

The monthly meeting of the Ladies' Aid Society of St. John's Lutheran Church will be held this evening at the home of Mrs. Harold Ney at 7:30.

The Mid-Week Lenten Service was held in St. John's Lutheran Church on Wednesday evening and will be held every Wednesday evening through Lent at 7:30.
