Maytown Scouts Given Charter

Scouts and scouters of Maytown Troop 53 recently held their annual banquet at the American Legion Home dining hall at which time the parents of the scouts acted as hosts. The opening and closing remarks of the program were under the direction of Vernon Mayers, chairman of the troop committee. An honored guest representing the Western District Field Executive, was District Commissioner John Peterman, who spoke briefly on scouting. The main event of the evening was the presentation of the Charter to Scoutmaster Elwood K. Gerber by Mr. Peterman. The Charter represents 5 consecutive years of scouting for troop 53, which has been under the leadership of Gerber since the troop re-organized five years ago. Gerber, a scouter for 24 years, served in other communities such as Mount Joy and Marietta in leadership capacities and is well known throughout the scouting ranks of Lancaster County. Before coming to Maytown, he served the county council as a district commissioner and he was one of the men responsible for the re-organization of troop 53 as it is now. Advancements and badges were given to Jed Drenquist, John Ruffy, Leroy Blough, Jim Elliot, Michael Judge, Tenderfoot Rank, Russell Meredith, Ralph Williams, Second Class Rank, Bruce Smith, George Glattacker, Jim Housel and Harry Frye, First Class rank. Charles Johns received the Citizenship and Community Merit Badge. John Boyer of Columbia and a former Lebanon County Scout and Scouter was praised for his work as acting Explorer Advisor for Post 53. Entertainment followed the presentation of awards with the singing of a few numbers by the Donegal Gospel Quartet. This group included E. K. Gerber, Miller Wolgemuth, Clifford Morrison and Amos Earhart. Also Scouts R. Meredith, S. Trostle, J. Fry, D. Myers and J. Hoffman were accompanied by Mrs. Beatrice Wittle and her guitar for a few selections. The Scouts and Scouters were very fortunate to have with them another honored guest from the Marietta Air Force Station. He was Col. G. E. Elliott who had formerly served and visited many historical and biblical places in the Holy Land and who is now Commanding Officer of the Marietta Air Force Station. Colonel Elliott spoke of his experiences there and showed many fascinating slides of Biblical spots.
