Volunteers Are Sought Through Poetry Medium

The following poem was written by the committee in charge of the local Day Camp to introduce the 1958 camp, its aim and its needs. Day Camp will be held at the Little Chiques School Playground June 16, 17, 18, 19, 20, 24 and 25th. The registration date is May 10th.

"Day Camp", Why that's months away
That's what I heard a leader say
And when in June the camp began,
Alas! Her girls were not on hand.
And so you see, the time is here
To get troop moms to volunteer
To work in Day Camp, It's such fun
To sit upon a sit-upon!

We'll train these mothers in the Spring
So they will know just everything
From how to soap outside the pot

To how to tie a right square knot.
And then when Day Camp does begin
All Scouts who want, may come in.
No one will be turned away
'Cause there'll be plenty that may
Bring a lot of play and fun
Into the lives of each young one.

Last year a hundred little girls
With Day Camp plans and dreams
Were told "There is no room for you
Day Camp has burst its seams
Let's find those needed helpers now
So every eager Scout can say, "I went to Day Camp
And no one was left out!"
Mrs. Warren Foley is the camp director this year. Mrs. Warren Sprecher is the business manager and Miss Elsie Lefever is the camp site chairman. The fee for this year's camp will be $2.00.

Best sellers are books most frequently purchased and not necessarily the best books written.
