SCOUTS PLANT TREES AT PARK
 Girl Scouts and Brownies of Mount Joy and Florin began a project Saturday following the theme of the 1958 Day Camp — Conservation. The girls met at the Little Chiques School Park Saturday morning and planted trees and bushes on the grounds near the entrance of the park and along the creek.

Mrs. Warren Foley, director of the Day Camp, was in charge of the event. The trees and shrubs were secured through the Mount Joy Sportsmen's Association.

New York was the third largest city in the colonies, the third city to have a printing press, and the third to support a newspaper.

Three Hempfield high school seniors were awarded scholarships totaling $1,800 by the Hempfield Alumni Association last Saturday night at the organization's annual dinner meeting. The students receiving the scholarship grants are Julia Harny, East Petersburg, $800; Doris Bushong, Columbia R2, $600; and Wilbur Amard of Columbia R1, $400. Miss Harny and Miss Bushong will enter Elizabethtown College, and Amard will attend Millersville State Teachers College.

An estimated 150 Association members and the 83-student class of 1958 attended the buffet-style supper at the Hempfield high school. Walter H. Reese, Jr., president, was in charge.

Mrs. Margaret Dana, interior decorator for the Armstrong Cork Company, was the guest speaker Monday night at a meeting of the Landisville Auxiliary to the Lancaster General Hospital. Mrs. Dana spoke on interior decoration schemes of three types of 18th century homes. Mrs. Rudolph York, 140 Silver Spring Road, was program chairlady. An estimated 45 ladies attended the event.

Four Trips Are Taken In Week
 Four trips were taken last week by the local community ambulance. Sunday, May 18 Richard Paul Sprout and Wanda Fisher, both of Lancaster, were taken to the St. Joseph's Hospital by drivers Robert Hoffmaster and Samuel Dock. Tuesday Mrs. Clyde Fenstermacher was transferred from the St. Joseph's hospital to her Mt. Joy home by drivers Irvin Kaylor and John Myers. The same day Kersey Frank was taken to St. Joseph's hospital by Mr. Kaylor and Christ Charles.

Saturday, May 24, Clarence Wenger, Florin, was taken to St. Joseph's Hospital by drivers John Myers and Ray Myers. The Wenger boy, aged seven, was reported in satisfactory condition after he was treated for injuries after he was struck by a truck. The accident occurred Saturday in front of the Florin post office. Police said "the truck was driven by Harold S. Rohrer, Elizabethtown."

Scene VI, "Cotton Capers," scene VI, found the eighth grade girls modeling cotton skirts and blouses with a square dance routine. Scene VII, "P-P Party and Good-Night", featured pajamas, robes and nightgowns modeled by the student seamstresses.

Mrs. Ruth B. Marsh, head of the home economics department at Hempfield, was in charge of the show. She was assisted by Mrs. Hazel Pann and Mrs. Evelyn Kochenauer, home economics teachers, and Miss Joane Molenock and Miss Carol Yard, student teachers from Pennsylvania State University. Music for the show was presented by the Hempfield String Quartet under the direction of Miss Zoe Cummings, and Miss Sylvia Eshleman, a junior, playing the organ.

An estimated 56 persons attended the 16th annual "Charter Night" celebration of the Landisville Lions club last Monday night at the Stevens House ballroom, in Lancaster. Lion club members, their wives and guests, held a dinner followed by dancing until midnight. Honored as charter members of the Landisville service organization at the affair were Benjamin J. Greider, Jay Donbach, J. Miller Eshleman, Arthur Ulrich, Verne Hiestand and Earle N. Stauffer. Each was presented with carnations. Several other charter members not present at the dinner-dance were similarly honored. Arthur Ulrich, 1st vice-president, was in charge of the program. Bob Stetle and his orchestra provided the music for dancing.

The Zion Lutheran Church softball team, off to a good start this year, already has three games chalked up as history and one postponed game with Maytown to make up. Twelve games are yet to be played when the season terminates on July 3. The schedule, as released by Wilbur Kauffman, is May 27, at Mountville EUB; May 29, at Faith MBC; June 3, at Mountville Brethren; June 5 at Mountville Reformed; June 10, Maytown, home; June 12, at Rohrerstown; June 17, Kinderhook, home; June 19, Mountville EUB, at home; June 24, at Faith MBC; June 26, Mountville Brethren, home; July 1, Mountville Reformed, home; and the final game on July 3 at Maytown.
