Weddings

SHELLEY — WISE

Miss Elizabeth E. Shelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Shelly, Mount Joy R2 was married to Donald J. Wise, son of Mrs. Catherine Hemperly, Newmanstown, Sunday, at 3 p.m. in Mount Calvary Church, Elizabethtown with the Rev. Walter L. Wilson, Jr., officiating. They will live at Mount Joy R. D. 2.

BYER — WOLGEMUTH

Joan Louise Byer of Reserve, Kans., and H. Earl Wolgemuth of Mount Joy, exchanged nuptial vows on May 31 at 3 p.m. in the chapter of the Brethren in Christ Navajo Mission, Bloomfield, N. Mex.

The Rev. J. Wilmer Heisey performed the candlelit ceremony before an altar banked with gladioli and carnations. Mrs. Evan Adams of Cuba, N. M., sang "Because," "I Love Thee" and "Wedding Prayer."

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a floor-length gown fashioned with a bodice of chintilly lace over satin, and over her satin skirt.

Attendants at the wedding were Sylvia Knepper, Upland, Calif., maid of honor; Mary Olive Lady, also of Upland, bridesmaid; and Jay Heisey, Elizabethtown, Pa., best man. Ushers were Dr. Alvin Heise of the Brethren in Christ mission and Lester Wolgemuth of Mount Joy, brother of the groom. Candelighters were Elaine and Shirley Byer, sister of the bride. Flower girl was Carol Heise, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Heise.

Approximately 140 guests were present for the ceremony. Refreshments were served in the reception hall immediately following the ceremony.

Especially honored as the guests were parents of the bride and groom, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Byer of Reserve, Kans., and Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Wolgemuth of Mount Joy.

After a wedding trip to Pennsylvania, the couple will resume their duties at the Brethren in Christ Navajo Mission near Bloomfield, N. Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rettew are attending the 73rd Annual Convention of The Holstein-Friesian Assoc. of America at Boston, Mass., as a representative of Pennsylvania Holstein breeders.

Rettew is one of 182 convention delegates from all 48 states and Puerto Rico who are in Boston to discuss the business, shape the policies and elect the officers of the National Holstein Association.

1958 PP&L SCHOLARSHIP WINNERS

As part of its good citizenship responsibilities, Pennsylvania Power & Light Company is proud to sponsor a program of educational assistance for deserving young people from the communities it serves. Here are this year's winners.

In offering this scholarship program, PP&L recognizes the mutual interest which business, educational authorities and the public have in ensuring American youth of the opportunity for instruction and development in all areas of advanced learning. For such fully-trained youth are now needed in ever-growing numbers as the leaders of tomorrow in this increasingly complex world.

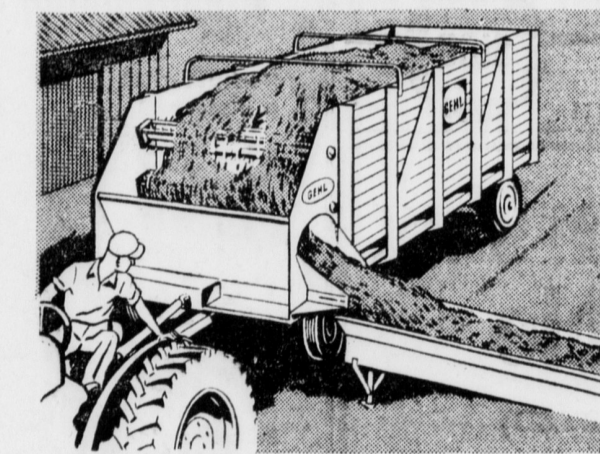

High school students interested in competing for PP&L scholarship awards next year may secure a preview of the program by asking at our nearest office for a copy of the booklet issued in connection with this year's awards. A new edition, fully detailed on next year's competition, will be available at your high school early in the fall.
