

FLORIN NEWS

Archery Club To Open New Larger Course

Because of the increased interest in bow and arrow hunting, the Lancaster Archery Club has looked to the future and has expanded to a 28-target field course on the range located in Williamson's Park, end of South Duke Street, Lancaster, Pa. This new course has recently been completed by the club and will be officially opened on Sunday, June 29, at 1 p. m. with an invitational 28-target field round. Trophies will be awarded to the winners in all competitive classes of the instinctive division. The club also looked forward to the fact that the children will be the future archers of Lancaster County and installed junior stakes for their use on this course.

Florin Lions Install Officers

Reuben Goodling was installed as the new president of the Florin Lions Club at the Monday night meeting of the group at Clearview Dinner. Jay Snyder was installed as first vice president; Charles Johnson, second vice president; C. Arthur Wolgemuth, secretary; Ralph Oberholzer, financial secretary and treasurer; Charles Hill, lion tamer; Robert Johnson, and Benjamin Staley, tail twisters; John Hess and Dr. Hugh Coleman, directors for one year; Donald Miller, director for two years. Wilbur Weaver was the installing officer. During the program, the Boy Scout troop of Florin presented a skit. Irvin Gerber, outgoing president, was in charge of the meeting.

Clean-Cut Lines Give Slim Look

A weight problem should not keep women off the well-dressed list.

Smartness in being well-dressed is not a matter of size. Bernice J. Sharp, extension clothing specialist of the Pennsylvania State University, says that knowing how to choose the right lines is one of several keys to being well-dressed.

The woman with a full figure can create the illusion of taking off pounds by selecting clean-cut lines that fit smoothly and are simple and graceful in style. She will avoid weight-adding frills, such as bows, wide sleeves, heavy drapes, or loose lines. But that doesn't mean she must wear only tailored clothes.
