Letters to the Editor...

August 11, 1958
Dear Sir: A gentleman from Manheim who has all the information on how they started their pool is willing to come to our borough council meeting with the plans, pictures, and the financial report and explain it to them.
In closing it is up to the citizens of Mount Joy to let their feelings be known in this matter. Perhaps the Editor of the Bulletin would be willing to conduct an informal poll to see how many feel this plan for a Community Pool is a good idea.
Sincerely,
Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Rice.

What's Wrong? - - -

Remember the story about how a class of college students sent the janitor to bed?
The fiendish experiment involved the application of continued suggestion, repeating to the janitor over and over each time he was met by one of the students that "You don't look so well. What's the matter?"

Soon the poor man was ill, went home and went to bed, complaining to his good wife that he felt rotten.

We're a little reminded of that story when we hear repeated questions of "What's wrong with Mount Joy?"

The truth of the matter is that there is not much wrong with Mount Joy that a little positive thinking will not cure.

For instance, within the past few days we have heard of two or three impromptu and strictly unofficial sessions which pointed the conversation at this subject of "What's wrong with Mount Joy?"

Perhaps that is one way of tackling a problem, but we have a feeling that a positive approach which asks "What can I do to improve Mount Joy?" is a far better way.

For instance, again, when the Lions club decided to build a shelter house at the park they accomplished more good for Mount Joy than if they had asked, "What's wrong?" The clearing, grading and seeding of the old grade school property was a positive decision to "DO SOMETHING."

No single project, no lone attempt to better the situation will make Mount Joy a model community, but with a lot of people and a lot of organizations asking themselves "What can we do to make Mount Joy better?" this easily could be the most unusual spot in Pennsylvania.

Let's take a page from the television commercial — "Look sharp, feel sharp, be sharp." Let's think optimistically, feel optimistic and be optimistic.

The question is NOT, "What's wrong with Mount Joy?" The real question is "How can we make Mount Joy even better?"

Road to Socialism

Have you taken inventory lately of how far our American free enterprise system has taken on socialist characteristics?

We have the progressive income tax first proposed by the Marxists, but we have made it more radical than they could have imagined possible.

We have a great number of government manufacturing operations producing goods in competition with private firms.

The Federal Government is the largest land owner in the country, and the largest employer.

We have Federal owned and Federal financed utility systems.

We may not have collectivized our farms, but we have Government management of farm production, of farm acreage, of farm prices and of some kinds of farm labor.

We have Federal financed and subsidized housing.

We have various social welfare programs which tax Peter to support Paul.

The growing number of these Federal programs makes it evident that our government has taken long strides toward socialism, accomplishing by evolution results that our people would have resisted if they had been attempted by revolution.

ABUNDANT LIFE

by ORAL ROBERTS

ANNI FINDS A NEW LIFE

Anni S— was taken to the Crusade in Columbia, S. C., with a broken back. Later she wrote, "I shall never forget the ride to Columbia. The driver told me later that he was afraid to look at my face, because it grew so pale. It seemed to him that he could see life leaving my body. He was afraid that something would happen to me; perhaps I would die en route, and he would be held responsible for my death."

The Columbia Crusade was my greatest meeting up to that time. In 16 days, 13,500 people were converted. It still lingers in my memory as one of the high spots of my ministry.

But to Anni, it brings a different memory—the memory of the night that she began to live again. No one can describe what happened as dramatically as she.

Some five years later, she said: "When Brother Roberts gave the altar call, I was included in the crowd that went up to be saved. I was crawling on hands and knees in spirit and mind, presenting myself along with the rest of the lost sheep who were seeking forgiveness, too." (Of course, this was only going on in her mind, as Anni was completely helpless in the invalid room.)

"Suddenly my attendant stood up. She said, 'He is coming,' and I thought Jesus was coming for me. Then I saw Brother Roberts. He bowed down and took my hand in his, lifting me, as he said, 'Now, my little sister, in the name of Jesus of Nazareth, I command you to arise and to be made every whit whole!"

"Like a bolt of lightning, something hit me and brought me to my feet. Brother Roberts then leaned me against my attendant, as one would a log. My body was still that dead. I had not been in the healing line, so Brother Roberts only knew I was an accident case and did not know about my broken back. Suddenly he said, 'Oh, this woman has a broken back!' Then he laid his hand directly over the broken place, praying, 'I command that this back be made whole and every bone to mend!'"

"Just then another bolt of hot, radiant lightning struck me and went through my body. When I came to, I was leaping and shouting, and people were hugging me and weeping. I thought I was being welcomed into Heaven, that I had been forgiven by the Lord and he had translated me into the heavenly domain. The Lord held my back instantly."

Five years after this incident occurred, we decided to publish Anni's testimony. Our editor wrote her for final confirmation of her healing and asked her if she were still healed. Her reply was direct and to the point: "You asked me if I am still healed. I am healed, for the Lord is the same, and what he does is complete. I believe my back is stronger than it ever was."

So Anni found, as thousands of others have found in the last 2,000 years, that Jesus of Nazareth is the same yesterday, and today, and forever.
