Local Ambulance Transports Four

Four persons were transported to hospitals by the local community ambulance during the past week. Last Wednesday Mrs. Mae Coover, South Market Street, was taken to St. Joseph's hospital by drivers Marlin Myers and Miller Wolgemuth with Mrs. Joseph Germer as nurse. On Thursday, Mary Herr, Mount Joy R2, was taken to the Lancaster General hospital by drivers Samuel Dock and John Myers.

When Mr. Dock and Mr. Myers were returning home on Route 230 near the Comet Drive-in movie, they were flagged to a stop by a car approaching Lancaster. Their services were asked to transport Mrs. Sybilla Derk and her newborn child to the St. Joseph's hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Derk were enroute to the hospital from their Bainbridge R. D. home to admit Mrs. Derk but the baby was born in the auto.

Friday, Guy Spittler, New Haven Street, was transported to St. Joseph's hospital by drivers Irvin Kaylor and Christ Charles.

SEVEN MAJORETTES ATTEND CLINIC

Seven majorettes from the Donegal high school band attended a one-day clinic in Reading to learn new skills of twirling. Champ Paton, who was the drum major of the University of Michigan band for five years, conducted the area clinic. Two other schools in the county were represented at the Reading affair.

Local majorettes who attended were Brenda Pardoe, Sandra Wittle Linda Morton, Carol Detwiler, Barbara Stehman, Judy Nissley and Nancy Wittle.

Rotarians Hear About Asbestos

D. V. Rosato, product engineer with Raybestos-Manhattan, Inc., of Manheim was the speaker Tuesday noon at the weekly luncheon meeting of the Mount Joy Rotary club, held at Hostetters.

Asbestos, he explained, is a mineral which is mined and processed from rock and used in hundreds of products.

At present the most sensational use is with the nose cones of the outer-space rocket, which need a heat resistant material.

The speaker conducted a question and answer period and displayed samples of asbestos used in combination with plastic.

BAND PRACTICE

In order to work out new drills for the coming football season, it is necessary for the senior band of Donegal high school to begin practice one week before school starts as has been the custom it was announced by H. Morrell Shields, band director.

All regular senior members and new members should report to the high school Monday evening, Aug. 25, at 6:30 p.m. Rehearsal time will be from 6:30 to 8 p.m. Rehearsals will be held each evening next week.

ward the George McCue Day and he was also given a social life membership to the post. Although he served in the U. S. Army and also served overseas, the time that he served did not coincide with the dates for active membership in the American Legion. George had played baseball on the junior legion baseball teams and also assisted as a coach of the team.

Members discussed the next county council meeting which will be held in Columbia Friday, Aug. 22. Emory Krick, commander, was in charge of the meeting.

Marietta R1 celebrated her birthday Saturday.

Churches Plan To Make Census

Eight Churches in Mount Joy and Florin will cooperate in a religious census of the community on Sunday, October 26, as part of a United National Christian Teaching Mission.

The churches are the St. Mark's Evangelical United Brethren, Trinity Lutheran, St. Luke's Episcopal, - First Presbyterian, Chiques Methodist, Mount Joy Mennonite, Florin Church of the Brethren, and Glosbrenner Evangelical United Brethren.

Other activities beside the door-to-door census will be held from Oct. 23 to the 30th. These include self-study of each church's program, fellowship cultivation, visitation to prospective members found through the census, and program enlargement.

General Chairman of the United effort is the Rev. E. M. Moyer, St. Luke's Episcopal Church; chairman of the Census Committee, the Rev. C. E. Ulrich, St. Mark's E. U. B. Church; chairman of the Finance Committee, the Rev. Lester Koder, Trinity Lutheran Church; chairman of the Publicity Committee, the Rev. Menno Good, Chiques Methodist Church.

TWO ATTEND BANK SEMINAR

One Mount Joy banker and a Landisville banker are among the ten Lancaster County men who are attending the annual Pennsylvania Bankers Association Summer School and Directors' Seminar at Bucknell University, at Lewisburg, Pa., this week.

The two are Robert E. Kline, First National Bank & Trust Company, Mount Joy; and James R. Kauffman, First National Bank of Landisville.

ALARMS SOUNDED

Two false alarms were sounded in the borough for fires last Wednesday and Thursday. The Thursday call came during a thunder storm and heavy rainfall in the area. The alarms were sounded through a telephone cable connected between the Lancaster General Cigar Co. building on East Main Street and the alarm system. The "short circuit" has been corrected over the weekend.
