PETERS — MILLER
Miss Esther K. Peters, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willis R. Peters, Manheim R2 and Abram L. Miller, Mount Joy R1, son of Mr. and Mrs. Abram C. Miller, Gettysburg R4, were married at 10:30 a.m. Saturday in Gantz Mennonite Church.

Homer D. Bimberger officiated, assisted by Ellis D. Leaman. Miss Anna K. Peters attended her sister as maid of honor, and the bridesmaids were two other sisters, the Misses Lois K. and Ruth K. Peters.

James L. Miller served as best man for his brother, Ushers were Paul Peters, brother of the bride; Kenneth Metzler, Manheim; Harold Keady and Glenn Metzler, the bride's cousins.

Music was provided by Hettie, Eva Mae, James and Jesse Peters, cousins of the bride.

After a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and the New England states, the couple will live at Mt. Joy R1.

The bride attended Manheim Central high school. The bridegroom is engaged in farming.

GRADUATED
Donald L. Livingston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald R. Emenheiser, of 309 E. Main St., and David R. Halbleib, 11 Marietta St., all of Mount Joy were graduated from recruit training Sept. 13 at the Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill.

The graduation exercises, marking the end of nine weeks of "boot camp", included a full dress parade and review before military officials and civilian dignitaries.

It's Quick and Easy to Apply
Plastra-Tone

Almost anyone can wield a paint roller but how many people know how to handle plastering tools? Plastra-Tone, the new combination plaster-and-paint product actually re-surfaces the cracked, broken walls and ceilings in your home, and it's as easy to apply as paint. You don't need special tools or skills.

With Plastra-Tone you plaster as you paint, sealing cracks, hiding and disguising rough wall and ceiling imperfections. Just select the color you wish in any of the sixteen-ready-mixed shades of Plastra-Tone and then roll or brush on a beautiful new finish. It's so easy to do, and thrifty, too.
