

Why Be Handcuffed to a one telephone home?

when an extension provides so much convenience at so small a cost

If you live in a "one phone home" you know that when the telephone rings, you have to leave whatever you're doing. The painting in the basement, the children in the playpen and the dinner on the stove all must go untended while you run up and down to answer the phone. With convenient extensions, this problem is gone forever and you get more done too!

More Clowns And Animals In Big Circus

Hershey, Pa. — More animal and clown acts than ever before exhibited in its 90-year history will highlight the gala jubilee edition of the Ringling Bros. & Barnum & Bailey Circus which plays Hershey Sports Arena, May 27, 28 & 30.

Innumerable varieties of wild and domesticated animals—including trained, but untamed, lions and tigers, bears that act like men, dancing dogs, sleek & superbly-schooled horses, erudite chimpanzees, acrobatic elephants that are mountainous masses of brawn and brain—have been assembled from the four corners of the earth to amuse and amaze children of all ages. The 1960 edition of the Greatest Show on Earth is also the year for clowns. All the greatest Big Show favorites are in the funmaking walkarounds and laugh skits, with hilarious new mechanical inventions from the wild imagination of such famed "inventor clowns" as Lou Jacobs and Paul Jung.

Four all-new productions extravagantly conceived and costumed, combine hundreds of performers and animals in magnificent pageantry. "Fairyland Fantasy", presents the most beloved characters of fairy tales. "Monkeyland Melange" is a striking aerial ballet of gorgeous girls held aloft on a network of webs. "Folkland Fair" is a combination of the native dances of romantic old Hungary and exhibitions by the world's greatest dressage riders. "Orchids and Ice" is the luminous finale in which islanders and eskimos join in a melodic salute to the new states of Hawaii and Alaska.

Unique animal acts are numerous and include Katzen's animals (chimpanzee, pony, fox, dogs, geese, cats, and roosters); George Keller's mixed group of natural jungle enemies; Hans Naumann's tigers and Tonto, the African Lion, who last season enjoyed a brief five minutes of freedom in Madison Square Garden; Klausner's 3 tight wire specialists, perch bears; Stephenson's Irish experts, jugglers and equilibrists; Hugo Schmitt's elephants; Charles Moroski's liberty horses; and Leaping Max, the Llama.

Chills will be provided by world-renowned aerialists, show Sunday.

Famous Ringling trainer Hugo Schmitt shows off Diamond, only performing African male elephant. Note Diamond's tremendous ears, a principal difference between Africans and the more common Indian varieties. Diamond will be seen in the Greatest Show on Earth at Hershey Sports Arena, May 27, 28 and 30.

Honor Vets With Buddy Poppies

"To honor the dead by helping the living." That's the ultimate purpose of the annual Buddy Poppy sale being held thru May 30 under the sponsorship of Mount Joy post 5752, Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States.

Members of that organization, each of whom has served in campaigns outside the continental limits of the United States and in many instances saw his buddies make the supreme sacrifice or become permanently disabled, are honoring those comrades-in-arms by aiding their dependents. Through the nationwide V.F.W. campaign they also are asking their fellow men to bestow similar honors through the purchase of the V.F.W. memorial flower, The Buddy Poppy.

Beneficiaries of the traditional Buddy Poppy campaign include disabled war veterans, dependents of veterans and the widows and orphans of deceased veterans.

The entire proceeds from the nationwide Buddy Poppy sale are used exclusively for the welfare and rehabilitation of disabled veterans and in providing aid for their dependents.
