Landisville-Salunga

Mrs. William K. Risser

Schools in the Hempfield Union School District will open Tuesday, September 6. All elementary pupils and grades 10 through 12 will report to classes at 1 p.m. Children registered for afternoon kindergarten classes will also report at that time.

On Sept. 7, all elementary school pupils and grades 7, 8, and 9 will report at 8:30 a.m. Children registered for morning kindergarten classes will also report.

The first full day of school will be Sept. 8, when the cafeterias will be in operation and buses will run on regular schedule.

On Wednesday evening, August 17 the Hempfield Sertoma Club entertained their ball players from the Landisville - Rohrerstown, East Petersburg areas at the Salunga pavilion.

The ladies helped with the food preparation and assisted in serving the boys. Dick Forry was in charge of the games. Prizes were awarded to the highest scorers.

A music camp organized by Samuel A. (Tiny) Wright, Landisville, former head of the music department at Stevens Trade School, will open in Lancaster County in September.

The camp, first of its kind in the county, will be situated along Route 72, eight miles south of Lancaster on a 16-acre tract of land owned by Wright.

Wright said trained staff members will provide supervision in workshop study throughout the year for students between 12 and 20.

When the new Bell Telephone Co. directories are issued in October, Landisville's TWINOaks will be listed with

The first Inter-Club activity of the Hempfield Sertoma Club is scheduled for Thursday evening, Sept. 15. The affair will be a "Stag Night" for all members of the Conenning stoga, Hempfield, Lancaster, Manheim and Wheatland Clubs. Place will be the Stone Barn, outside Millersville. Time: 6 o'clock with dinner at 7.

Vince Hart was selected chairman of the affair for Hempfield.

The Salunga Womens' club program planning committee for the coming season will meet at the home of Mrs. Earl Walters, Salunga, Tuesday evening, August 30, at 8 o'clock.

NEW WHEAT
Redcoat, a new soft red winter wheat, will be the recommended variety for Pennsylvania farmers in '61, announces Elmer C. Pifer, extension agronomist at Penn State. The Pennsylvania Foundation Seed Cooperative has 29 acres of Redcoat now which will be sold to seed growers for production of registered and/or certified seed for sale next year.

Best Food Buys

Meat and Local Crops Top List
Lower prices on beef and pork this week will simplify the task of planning economical menus reports Tom Piper, Penn State Marketing Agent.

Beef will be a featured bargain at most food stores this week end. Take your choice among the beef roasts-rib, chuck, rump and sirloin tip or beef steaks-sirloin, round or ground beef.

Turkeys continue as an attractive buy. In other poultry meats, fryers remain on the brink of downward pricing. Current retail quotes are unchanged from a week ago except for some isolated sales.

Outstanding vegetable buys include sweet corn, cucumbers, peppers, cabbage, and tomatoes. Remember those high prices for tomatoes last winter? Not so now. Prices are low while quality has never been better. Excellent quality corn is available now at your local roadside stand, farmers' market and food store.

Other good vegetable buys include potatoes, squash, spinach, onions, and leafy greens. Firm prices hold for green beans, carrots, cauliflower, and celery. New sweet potatoes are starting and prices are moving down.

PLANTS NEED LEAVES

Trimming leaves from tomato plants, and tips of squash, muskmelon and watermelon plants with the idea it puts added growth into the fruit is a very wrong practice, cautions J. O. Dutt, Penn State extension vegetable gardening specialist. A good growth of green leaves is one of the best signs of a healthy garden.
