LETTER TO SCOUTS

Dear Scouts & Scouters,

This is your inactive Asst. Scoutmaster in California. Air Force. Well I am stationing you know it seems funny to be at Edwards AFB in California to write to the troop Ionia. Edwards is the Air Force so well from nearly Force Flight Test Center, three thousand miles away. Here they test the X-15 rocket like to think that we are jet plane, fighter planes, homely separated by the inablers, and missile engines. I try to speak to each other work on the part of the base face to face for I carry the which tests missile engines. love of our troop in my heart Every day I must ride a bus where ever I go. In my par- some predicament, be it large or small. I have been in Scouting for 8 1/2 years now. In this time I have learned a lot. That is why I want you all to stay in Scouting and learn all you can. Advance, fill your chest with ribbons and badges, but remember, each time you look at those badges they represent more than just a pretty picture for your girl friend to admire. They represent a knowledge that you have acquired and will carry with you for the rest of your life. Some of you will become leaders in your community and will have the opportunity to pass on some of this knowledge.

Maybe this is a little above your head, although I doubt it because the troop I left behind knew a lot more than people thought they did. Didn't you boys?

I have been hearing many great things about our troop. You boys are winning ribbons, doing well in camping and passing ranks very well. Let me congratulate you on your fine job. May I give you a challenge?

It would please me very much if I could hear that each of you had at least passed one rank from the time I

Stop cutting brush...
kill it chemically with Reddon

It's REDDON®—the all-season farm brush killer. Use Reddon as a foliage spray in pastures and along fence rows during the growing season. Or you can use Reddon as a "frill," basal, or stump treatment any time of the year. It even controls tough species like oak and maple. Brush requires up to 10 times the amount of moisture and fertility needed by desirable plants. Eliminate the brush that shades crops and crowds out pasture grasses... order Reddon now.
