Postpone Big Masked Parade

Old Man Weather failed to cooperate Monday night, so the Lions' annual Halloween parade was postponed.

After a drizzling day, officials of the club about 4:30 Monday decided that it would be unwise to fight against the elements and spread the word that the parade would be postponed until later in the week.

Later that night they made arrangements for the event to be held Thursday of this week.

The same plans were to be followed—except that the parade would not be held but the Halloween party, judging of costumes, awarding of prizes, etc. would be held in the Joy Theatre.
