ABUNDANT LIFE

by ORAL ROBERTS
COMPLETELY DEDICATED

Many organists were grieved to hear of the death of one of their favorite masters of the keyboard. He had suffered a heart attack while in the pipe chambers of a large pipe organ and had died before he could be taken to a hospital.
The organist had been trying to stop a "cipher." A cipher occurs, I am told, when a pipe sounds without any pressure on its corresponding key.
On this occasion the organist had been asked to fix a cipher for another organist.
The irony of this musician's death lies in the fact that he finished his distinguished career as a master organist just as he had started it—in the pipe chambers, trying to stop a cipher!
The musician literally "died at the switch," for he had devoted his life to the organ. Here was complete dedication.
In the New Testament we read how Christ was completely dedicated to His Father's work and how His task, which He fulfilled completely, cost Him His life.
Jesus was put to death for our sins because He was dedicated to the task of fulfilling the mission that God, His Father, had sent Him to do on earth. He died that we might have everlasting life. He died for our sins—the sins of the whole world.
But Christ gained victory over death itself and arose from the dead. He broke the bonds of death and is alive today. He is with us now in spirit and in truth.
Jesus went about doing good. He spent two thirds of His earthly ministry healing the sick and the lame and casting out devils. He went about the countryside, preaching that repentance is essential to salvation.
The living presence of Jesus Christ is as real right now as His physical presence was to those who lived during His time on earth.
Christ was completely dedicated. He fulfilled His task as set out for Him by His Father. And because He went all the way, we today can have eternal life by accepting Him as our Saviour.
What about your task? Are you completely dedicated to it? Face up completely to your own responsibilities. And if the going gets rough, lean on Christ. He is near to assist you. Just call upon Him, and He will answer.

Trouble that looks like a mountain from a distance, usually is only a hill when you get to it.
