

Come to Church on Sunday

DEADLINE

To meet tightening production demands, it has become necessary to set an earlier, firm strict deadline on church announcements. To be included in any week's paper, copy must be in the Bulletin office no later than 7 a.m. on Wednesday. Copy may be delivered at the office or dropped through the mail slot in the front door during Tuesday nights. However, copy placed in mail should be timed that it reaches the Bulletin in the last delivery on Tuesday.

CAN'T REACH HIM...

They call him a problem child. "Can't reach him," say some. "He won't respond," echo others. Young as he is, he's already been in trouble with the police.

Why? There are lots of words, lots of phrases, to describe youngsters like this. The papers are full of them every day. There are lots of excuses given—for him, and for society. Are they valid?

This boy has parents. Why can't they reach him? Is it, perhaps, because they can't really reach themselves? Because they've never found themselves?

Self-discovery takes courage. It doesn't come easily. It takes help. It demands faith. The starting point for a quest of this kind is in the Church. This boy needs the Church. So do his parents. So, for that matter, do we all!

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Trinity E. C. Plans Rally

A Youth Rally will be held at Trinity E. C. Church, Donegal and New Haven Streets, before God? But even the very Sunday evening, beginning with a Christian Endeavor Rally at 6 p.m. at which time a film-strip presentation, "From Boston to Brownsville," will be shown under the direction of the pastor.

This service will be followed by the evening gospel service in which the youth of the Church will participate. Cleo Brandt will read the scripture lesson for the evening, Robert Nissley will lead in prayer and musical numbers will be presented by Eileen and George Irvin, Trumpet and Accordion duet; Joyce Gish and Ruth Wolfe, vocal duet; and a young people's chorus. Congregational singing of gospel choruses will also be featured, and the message will be preached by the pastor on the subject, "Christ's Challenge to Youth"

ABUNDANT LIFE
by ORAL ROBERTS
THE POWER OF LITTLE THINGS

One night as I stood and gazed at the sky, I suddenly remembered that there are billions and billions of stars. Some of these stars are bigger and brighter than our own sun, and some are fainter and smaller. The stars and the heavens are only a small part of God's magnificent universe. As I gazed at this vast splendor, I felt my importance shrinking to the size of a speck of sand. How could so almighty a God notice me?

But the Bible teaches that God does notice small things. Luke 12:6, 7 says: "Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God? But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore; ye are of more value than many sparrows." These verses tell of God's evaluation of the seemingly insignificant.

Christ noticed the poor widow's mite among the large contributions of the well to do. They gave out of their abundance, but she gave all she had. Christ saw the greatness in little things—the cup of cold water given in His name, the growth of the tiny mustard seed into a tree.

I know a poor, crippled lady who keeps a little glass by her bedside in which she puts her extra pennies and nickels. Over the years, the savings from that little glass as Jesus did. Great accomplishments can be wrought by little moments of prayer scattered through a busy day. Happiness can be given by a carefully chosen card sent to a hospital patient or by a smiling greeting to all you meet. A smile can be the sunshine that brightens someone's day. One of the greatest joys of life is receiving unexpected good news. Write a letter expressing your love to someone who is not expecting to hear from you. It will be a blessing to him to know that he has not been forgotten. Send a small sacrificial gift to a great cause. May Jesus be able to say of each of us, "You have done what you could."

Christ hears each silent, desperate cry for help. He, who listens to the very least of those who inhabit the earth, hears your prayers. He loves you. God is truly a good God. He cares for His own.

Arrange Special Prayer Service

Members of the Reich's and Trinity E. C. Churches will meet in Trinity Church, Donegal and New Haven Sts for a prayer service Wednesday evening, Sept. 27, at 7:30 p.m.

The theme of the service is "Concern for Empowerment" and the lessons will be presented by Ethel Barto, class leader of the Mt. Joy Church. Special musical numbers will be given by members of the participating Churches. This is a denominational-wide effort seeking revival among the Christian people and Churches of America.

FORMER PASTOR TO SPEAK

Rally Day will be observed on Sunday in Reich's E. C. Church with a Sunday School program at 9:30 a. m. and a worship service at 10:55 a.m. Special music will be furnished at both services. The Rev. N. N. Lower, of Reading, a former pastor of the church, a former District Superintendent, and until recently pastor of the Grace Evangelical Congregational Church, Lancaster, will be the guest speaker for both services.

The Rev. Amos H. Groff is pastor of the church, and John D. Roland is the Sunday School superintendent.
