ZERO

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

The countdown has been completed. At the word "zero," electronic miracles happen. The rocket zooms skyward, and seems to penetrate the infinite.

But it hasn't. Man's greatest efforts fall far short of solving the mystery that is life itself. The answer is known only unto God. And man's greatest troubles still concern not the universe but man himself, and his fellowmen.

The greatest scientists today realize even more acutely than most of us the limitations of mankind. From deep, personal experience they know how desperately man needs God's love and His guidance. And they know, too, that no matter how "invincible" their rockets may become, in the end, true peace can be achieved only by God's own workings within the hearts and minds of men.

Pray for this kind of peace in church next Sunday.

Presbyterian Home News

Mrs. Robert Johnstone visited her Aunt, Mrs. Agnes Maglauchlin.

Miss Edith Seltzer, Cain, Pa. Mrs. Weratz and Mrs. Feddis, Christiana, visited Mrs. Florence Stauffer.

Several visited the Home during the last week: Mr. and Mrs. Tredway and Debbie from Stewartstown, Rev. Roy W. Townsend, Nottingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Nutto of Bethany Church, Lancaster.

Mrs. Bertha Weaver's guests were: Mrs. Leonard Groff, Quarryville, Mrs. Albert Raub, Strasburg, and Lois Stottlemyer and Kenny of Paradise.

Mrs. Harry Douglass, of Shiremanstown, Miss Mary Douglas, Grantham, and Mrs. Colt, Elizabethtown, visited Dr. Mary Riggs Noble.

In spite of the inclement weather on Saturday the Harvest Home Service was a success, there having been 85 guests. An interesting program was provided, the speaker being Miss Esther Stamat, Director of Services to the Aging, Episcopal Diocese of New York, whose talk was most interesting and enjoyable.

The program began with a piano prelude by Mrs. Harding, resident, followed by words of welcome by Mr. W. McConkey Kerr, President of the Board of Trustees, and greetings from the Woman's Auxiliary, by Miss Mary Brower, President, of Bloomsburg.

The scripture was read by Mrs. Ruth Ensor, resident, followed by prayer by Dr. Mary Riggs Noble, also resident, and then a delightful solo by Warren Foley accompanied by Asher Halbleib.

This was followed by the address by Miss Stamat. The service was closed by singing and the benediction by the Rev. Wm. A. McAdoo, Marietta. A social hour followed.

Twenty-one members of Circle #2 of the Presbyterian Church, Middletown held their monthly meeting at the Home Tuesday afternoon, the leader, Mrs. Martha Felty, presiding. We enjoyed an interesting program followed by a social hour with refreshments served by the Circle.

OHIO SINGER AT RHEEMS CHURCH

On Saturday evening, Oct. 21 the Hartville Mennonite Singers from Ohio will present a program of Sacred Music at the Rheems Church of the Brethren.

The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. and everyone is invited to enjoy this inspirational service.

PLAN PRAYER RETREAT
A Prayer Retreat will be held Oct. 21 at St. Luke's Episcopal church, with sessions at 1:30 p.m. and 7 p.m.

First appearing in Boston in August 7, 1721, the New England Courant was the first American newspaper established in any colony which openly opposed recognized leaders of the time.

When in need of printing remember The Bulletin.

DEADLINE

To meet tightening production demands, it has become necessary to set an earlier, firm strict deadline on church announcements. To be included in any week's paper, copy must be in the Bulletin office no later than 7 a.m. on Wednesday. Copy may be delivered at the office or dropped through the mail slot in the front door during Tuesday nights. However, copy placed in mail should be timed that it reaches the Bulletin in the last delivery on Tuesday.

St. Luke's Plans Special Service

DR. CLIFTON A. BEST
The Rev. Canon Clifton A. Best will be speaker at an open Prayer Fellowship service which will be held at Saint Luke's Episcopal church, 211 a box lunch.

UNION SERVICE

The Mount Joy - Florin Ministerium will hold a Union Thanksgiving service on Wednesday, Nov. 22, at 7:30 o'clock at the Chiques Methodist Church. The Rev. Howard Bernhard will be the speaker.

HYMN SING

A community hymn sing will be held Saturday night, Oct. 21, at 7:30 p.m. at the Auction Gallery in Florin. Robert Knoll of Lebanon will lead the singing. The public is invited.

When in need of printing remember The Bulletin.

S. Market street, on Saturday Oct. 21. The afternoon session will be at 1:30 p.m. and the evening session at 7:00 p.m. The public is invited.
Dr. Best is Canon Missioner of the Episcopal Diocese of Harrisburg and is well known to Prayer Groups throughout this area and many parts of the country. A beverage will be provided. Those attending should bring Luke's Episcopal church, 211 a box lunch.
