

Donegal Announces Six-Weeks Honor Roll

Annex High School

Six pupils at the Donegal Annex made the all-A honor roll for the first report per-the all-A Honor Roll at Donegal, according to Ragnar Halgren principal. They report period, it was announced this week by John F. Hallgren, principal. They report period, it was announced this week by John F. Hallgren, principal.

A swimming pool for Mt. Joy? It will may be that the pool will be opened on Memorial Day, 1962.

There is no official word yet, but Main Street canny, Mary Meszaros, Stephanie Miller, Ruth Wolfe, Kathleen Zimmerman, Alan Acri, Mike McDowell, Stephan Miller, Karen Bricker, Elizabeth O'Connor, Valerie Schatz, Marianne Waters, Shirley Weidman, Paula K. Bieseck, Susan Weidman, Joseph Thomas, Barbara Connelly, Teresa Drace, Mary Hess, Jacquelyn Shrum and June Trostle, seventh grade.

Several months ago there was considerable talk about the possibility of getting water from one of the holes for in the borough system. That time there was talk about "which hole" "how much water" etc. etc.

Two 1961 Donegal high school graduates have received recognition for their advanced standing in the field of chemistry, Donegal Principal John Hart has been informed.

The head of the chemistry department at Penn State has written that Geoffrey Matiner, son of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Mariner, and John D. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Martin, Marietta R. D. I. have been exempted from the first semester of university chemistry.

Why? asked the peace-mongoose, and the word around that the strange cobra and anti-mongoose intellectually curious and inst the ideals and traditions of mongoisism.

He is crazy," cried the mongoose's father. He is sick," said his mother. He is a coward," shouted brothers. He is a mongoosesexual," spered his sisters.

Strangers who have never eyes on the peace-like gooose remembered that had seen him crawling his stomach, or tying on ra hoods, or plotting the overthrow of Monday.

I am trying to use reason intelligence," said the nge new mongoose. Reason is six-sevenths of son," said one of his thors.

Intelligence is what the ny uses," said another. nally, the rumor spread the mongoose had ven-in his sting, like a cobra, he was tried, convicted a show of paws, and coned to banishment.

oral: Ashes to ashes, and n't get you your own s may.

BRRIAGE LICENSE cob Northaid Eshelman, second of the season. nk Joy R2, and Anna Loewen, 121 New Ha-Street.

as a public service, The lein lists the following sician, who may be ched for emergency se- or by those who are ble to contact their ily physician:

Sunday Dr. John Gates

TO HARRISBURG John Hart, Donegal high school principal, and Ragnar Halgren, asst. principal were in Harrisburg Monday and Tuesday attending the state meeting of the Secondary School Principals' association.

The largest hail-stone ever measured in the USA weighed 1 1/2 pounds, was 17 inches in circumference and almost 5 1/2 inches in diameter.

Lightning damages or des-will hold a meeting at about Mount Joy Fire House on Wednesday evening, Nov. 1, at 7:30 o'clock.

Miss Catharine G. Zeller, English department, will direct the production.

The Donegal Booster Club will hold a meeting at the Mount Joy Fire House on Wednesday evening, Nov. 1, at 7:30 o'clock.

AT MANCHESTER COLLEGE A Mount Joy young man is among the 1199 full-time students enrolled for the fall term at Manchester College in North Indiana.

HOME FROM VISIT Mrs. Titus Rutt returned home after spending three weeks with Dr. and Mrs. Jos. E. Shinn, Rockville, Conn.

The Mount Joy

BULLETIN

SIXTY-FIRST YEAR, NO. 22 MOUNT JOY, PA., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 26, 1961 SEVEN CENTS PER COPY

FLORIN FAMILY'S SHELTER READY

While most people have given the matter much care-penditures have been about toilet facilities, tools, firsthouse and thus are always Games and entertainment been talking about it andful planning, as a visit to $350. aid equipment, etc. etc. full of fresh water. But, for the family have been some have been making the basement retreat indi- The amount includes not In their home they have when and if the shelter is stored but to keep them new plans for one, Mr. and Mrs. cates. only the price of the neces-an important check list of used for its grim purpose, 2 and interesting, the family Blair Smith of Florin have Build against an already sary concrete blocks for for would quickly grab and car-tanks—which hold far more would find them fresh and been building a fallout shel-existing heavy concrete wall, walls and ceiling but for they valved are closed and the has not explored them and the space is of slightly more having the blocks laid into ry with them to the shelter— water than is regarded as the thus better suited to pass the crete block structure is tuck-with the exception of a heat. He had a small advantage tion "plug in" and battery weeks—are safely isolated underground hide-away. der their home and as of this Many people in the Florin some few materials—but not One of the features of the shelter. shelter and one which seems Smith, a man handy with Food? A slightly different shelter will to have been a neat "Yankee tools, has no idea how many problem for the groceryman and innovation" even to County hours he has spent doing first and his family than for the more things which "Smitty" ing the attitude that what Blair Jr., age 8, a pupil at C.D. people was their system one thing and then another rest of us, nevertheless was plans to do to make they have done can be done GrandView school, and four-of water supply. to construct the shelter. It something less than what one might expect. They have given- en the matter careful thought and planning and while the shelter more livable and by many other people. Per-year-old Sonya, includes all With a few short lengths of has been a hobby during the the food shelf is well stocked, they do not expect to be do- haps, they reason, by seeing the necessities for living for pipe and a couple of shut recent weeks and now shows ing much work while con- fined to the shelter and thus do not anticipate working men appetites. of valves, Smith has con- result of his labor. Food? A slightly different Cooking? Yes, a 1-burner, bottle gas stove with plenty of extra gas cartridges is stored ready on a shelf. A gas lantern, which uses the same gas cartridges, hangs on a nearby hook and a gas torch with the tools is a third piece of equipment which burns the same gas fuel. In addition to the lantern for light, two coal oil lamps stand ready and a can of that fuel is tucked away in a corner. Probably the heating arrangements will be coal oil fired. Of course, there are scores of other items on the shelves—homely and personal items as simple as soap. Had the Smiths actually planned? Yes. They know prizes will be distributed to that it takes 3 1/2 gallons of the 1961 water per person per week. Marietta Halloween Parade. They have tested their bat- to be staged on Monday nite, tery radio for reception in- Oct. 30, and sponsored by side the concrete block shel- the Marietta Junior Cham- ter. It works well. Now they are interested in whether or not Conrad has made as careful preparations for orial park. In case of rain, transmission of information the parade will be held the for shelter as they have made in their Florin base- ment. Smith discusses his thoughts "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" ter and the implications freely. He has no fears that he and his family could and would live in hibernation for two weeks in perfect peace and harmony. Not only that, he almost hinted he'd like to try it if anyone wanted to make it worth while. Why did the Smiths build their shelter? They feel that they should do what they can to survive. Wether it is the correct thing to do and whether or not they actually would survive is something they do not know. However, a high rate of speed near the held at the Florin hall on they do feel an urgency to Mount Pleasant church. Friday night, Oct. 27, begin-do the best they know for themselves and for their two children. The areas to be included dear children. Schloser, deputy coroner, are all of Mount Joy town- Talking with Smith, one is Two other occupants of the ship, all of Mount Joy bor- not completely satisfied that car—Jacob Sherk, 18, Eliza- cugh, all of Rapho townshipe feels he actually is doing something which will make it possible for him and his children to survive even though he has put money, and workers, officials and though he has put money, apparently was uninjured their workers and any inter- energy, time and a great deal of planning into the The meeting is one of sev-project. scene and later showed up at eral being held throughout But, whatever happens, he as the home of a sister in Eliza- the county under the direct-has done the best he can as ion of the central commit- he sees it now—no one can do better than that.

Smuggled into his regular water shelves and a couple of niches for storage. The "kitchen" work table, like the bunks in the folds against the wall. The tanks are always part work table, of the water system in the folds against the wall.

There are four bunks— nected two sizable storage Things are "handy" with built of plywood and hinged tanks into his regular water shelves and a couple of niches for storage. The "kitchen" work table, like the bunks in the folds against the wall. The tanks are always part work table, of the water system in the folds against the wall.

Working with hunters and farmers to improve relation- ships between the two groups takes 75 per cent of his time sary, but may be worn. The film will begin at 8:00 p.m. Costumes are not neces- sary. There will be no judging. The party will take the place of the Lions' annual Halloween parade. For this Marietta Halloween Parade, they have tested their bat- to be staged on Monday nite, tery radio for reception in- Oct. 30, and sponsored by side the concrete block shel- the Marietta Junior Cham- ter. It works well. Now they are interested in whether or not Conrad has made as careful preparations for orial park. In case of rain, transmission of information the parade will be held the for shelter as they have made in their Florin base- ment. Smith discusses his thoughts "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" ter and the implications freely. He has no fears that he and his family could and would live in hibernation for two weeks in perfect peace and harmony. Not only that, he almost hinted he'd like to try it if anyone wanted to make it worth while. Why did the Smiths build their shelter? They feel that they should do what they can to survive. Wether it is the correct thing to do and whether or not they actually would survive is something they do not know. However, a high rate of speed near the held at the Florin hall on they do feel an urgency to Mount Pleasant church. Friday night, Oct. 27, begin-do the best they know for themselves and for their two children. The areas to be included dear children. Schloser, deputy coroner, are all of Mount Joy town- Talking with Smith, one is Two other occupants of the ship, all of Mount Joy bor- not completely satisfied that car—Jacob Sherk, 18, Eliza- cugh, all of Rapho townshipe feels he actually is doing something which will make it possible for him and his children to survive even though he has put money, and workers, officials and though he has put money, apparently was uninjured their workers and any inter- energy, time and a great deal of planning into the The meeting is one of sev-project. scene and later showed up at eral being held throughout But, whatever happens, he as the home of a sister in Eliza- the county under the direct-has done the best he can as ion of the central commit- he sees it now—no one can do better than that.

Prizes will be given for "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" for singles and doubles, for groups and for floats. Ugliest and floats divisions. The best overall entry will be presented a $25 prize.

Prizes will be given for "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" for singles and doubles, for groups and for floats. Ugliest and floats divisions. The best overall entry will be presented a $25 prize.

Prizes will be given for "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" for singles and doubles, for groups and for floats. Ugliest and floats divisions. The best overall entry will be presented a $25 prize.

Prizes will be given for "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" for singles and doubles, for groups and for floats. Ugliest and floats divisions. The best overall entry will be presented a $25 prize.

Prizes will be given for "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" for singles and doubles, for groups and for floats. Ugliest and floats divisions. The best overall entry will be presented a $25 prize.

Prizes will be given for "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" for singles and doubles, for groups and for floats. Ugliest and floats divisions. The best overall entry will be presented a $25 prize.

Prizes will be given for "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" for singles and doubles, for groups and for floats. Ugliest and floats divisions. The best overall entry will be presented a $25 prize.

Prizes will be given for "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" for singles and doubles, for groups and for floats. Ugliest and floats divisions. The best overall entry will be presented a $25 prize.

Prizes will be given for "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" for singles and doubles, for groups and for floats. Ugliest and floats divisions. The best overall entry will be presented a $25 prize.

Prizes will be given for "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" for singles and doubles, for groups and for floats. Ugliest and floats divisions. The best overall entry will be presented a $25 prize.

Prizes will be given for "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" for singles and doubles, for groups and for floats. Ugliest and floats divisions. The best overall entry will be presented a $25 prize.

Prizes will be given for "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" for singles and doubles, for groups and for floats. Ugliest and floats divisions. The best overall entry will be presented a $25 prize.

Prizes will be given for "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" for singles and doubles, for groups and for floats. Ugliest and floats divisions. The best overall entry will be presented a $25 prize.

Prizes will be given for "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" for singles and doubles, for groups and for floats. Ugliest and floats divisions. The best overall entry will be presented a $25 prize.

Prizes will be given for "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" for singles and doubles, for groups and for floats. Ugliest and floats divisions. The best overall entry will be presented a $25 prize.

Prizes will be given for "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" for singles and doubles, for groups and for floats. Ugliest and floats divisions. The best overall entry will be presented a $25 prize.

Garment Maker Wants Protector Machine Operators Gives Talk

Elsewhere in this week's Bulletin the management is extremely anxious to interview law enforcement, it was re-vealed to Mount Joy Rotarians Tuesday noon.

There are several reasons why Mount Joy was selected as a possible site for the plant, which manufactures boys outerwear. Chief among them is that they believe there is some experienced help already available and that Lancaster county people are of the disposition to

Working with hunters and farmers to improve relation- ships between the two groups takes 75 per cent of his time sary, but may be worn. The film will begin at 8:00 p.m. Costumes are not neces- sary. There will be no judging. The party will take the place of the Lions' annual Halloween parade. For this Marietta Halloween Parade, they have tested their bat- to be staged on Monday nite, tery radio for reception in- Oct. 30, and sponsored by side the concrete block shel- the Marietta Junior Cham- ter. It works well. Now they are interested in whether or not Conrad has made as careful preparations for orial park. In case of rain, transmission of information the parade will be held the for shelter as they have made in their Florin base- ment. Smith discusses his thoughts "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" ter and the implications freely. He has no fears that he and his family could and would live in hibernation for two weeks in perfect peace and harmony. Not only that, he almost hinted he'd like to try it if anyone wanted to make it worth while. Why did the Smiths build their shelter? They feel that they should do what they can to survive. Wether it is the correct thing to do and whether or not they actually would survive is something they do not know. However, a high rate of speed near the held at the Florin hall on they do feel an urgency to Mount Pleasant church. Friday night, Oct. 27, begin-do the best they know for themselves and for their two children. The areas to be included dear children. Schloser, deputy coroner, are all of Mount Joy town- Talking with Smith, one is Two other occupants of the ship, all of Mount Joy bor- not completely satisfied that car—Jacob Sherk, 18, Eliza- cugh, all of Rapho townshipe feels he actually is doing something which will make it possible for him and his children to survive even though he has put money, and workers, officials and though he has put money, apparently was uninjured their workers and any inter- energy, time and a great deal of planning into the The meeting is one of sev-project. scene and later showed up at eral being held throughout But, whatever happens, he as the home of a sister in Eliza- the county under the direct-has done the best he can as ion of the central commit- he sees it now—no one can do better than that.

Working with hunters and farmers to improve relation- ships between the two groups takes 75 per cent of his time sary, but may be worn. The film will begin at 8:00 p.m. Costumes are not neces- sary. There will be no judging. The party will take the place of the Lions' annual Halloween parade. For this Marietta Halloween Parade, they have tested their bat- to be staged on Monday nite, tery radio for reception in- Oct. 30, and sponsored by side the concrete block shel- the Marietta Junior Cham- ter. It works well. Now they are interested in whether or not Conrad has made as careful preparations for orial park. In case of rain, transmission of information the parade will be held the for shelter as they have made in their Florin base- ment. Smith discusses his thoughts "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" ter and the implications freely. He has no fears that he and his family could and would live in hibernation for two weeks in perfect peace and harmony. Not only that, he almost hinted he'd like to try it if anyone wanted to make it worth while. Why did the Smiths build their shelter? They feel that they should do what they can to survive. Wether it is the correct thing to do and whether or not they actually would survive is something they do not know. However, a high rate of speed near the held at the Florin hall on they do feel an urgency to Mount Pleasant church. Friday night, Oct. 27, begin-do the best they know for themselves and for their two children. The areas to be included dear children. Schloser, deputy coroner, are all of Mount Joy town- Talking with Smith, one is Two other occupants of the ship, all of Mount Joy bor- not completely satisfied that car—Jacob Sherk, 18, Eliza- cugh, all of Rapho townshipe feels he actually is doing something which will make it possible for him and his children to survive even though he has put money, and workers, officials and though he has put money, apparently was uninjured their workers and any inter- energy, time and a great deal of planning into the The meeting is one of sev-project. scene and later showed up at eral being held throughout But, whatever happens, he as the home of a sister in Eliza- the county under the direct-has done the best he can as ion of the central commit- he sees it now—no one can do better than that.

Working with hunters and farmers to improve relation- ships between the two groups takes 75 per cent of his time sary, but may be worn. The film will begin at 8:00 p.m. Costumes are not neces- sary. There will be no judging. The party will take the place of the Lions' annual Halloween parade. For this Marietta Halloween Parade, they have tested their bat- to be staged on Monday nite, tery radio for reception in- Oct. 30, and sponsored by side the concrete block shel- the Marietta Junior Cham- ter. It works well. Now they are interested in whether or not Conrad has made as careful preparations for orial park. In case of rain, transmission of information the parade will be held the for shelter as they have made in their Florin base- ment. Smith discusses his thoughts "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" ter and the implications freely. He has no fears that he and his family could and would live in hibernation for two weeks in perfect peace and harmony. Not only that, he almost hinted he'd like to try it if anyone wanted to make it worth while. Why did the Smiths build their shelter? They feel that they should do what they can to survive. Wether it is the correct thing to do and whether or not they actually would survive is something they do not know. However, a high rate of speed near the held at the Florin hall on they do feel an urgency to Mount Pleasant church. Friday night, Oct. 27, begin-do the best they know for themselves and for their two children. The areas to be included dear children. Schloser, deputy coroner, are all of Mount Joy town- Talking with Smith, one is Two other occupants of the ship, all of Mount Joy bor- not completely satisfied that car—Jacob Sherk, 18, Eliza- cugh, all of Rapho townshipe feels he actually is doing something which will make it possible for him and his children to survive even though he has put money, and workers, officials and though he has put money, apparently was uninjured their workers and any inter- energy, time and a great deal of planning into the The meeting is one of sev-project. scene and later showed up at eral being held throughout But, whatever happens, he as the home of a sister in Eliza- the county under the direct-has done the best he can as ion of the central commit- he sees it now—no one can do better than that.

Working with hunters and farmers to improve relation- ships between the two groups takes 75 per cent of his time sary, but may be worn. The film will begin at 8:00 p.m. Costumes are not neces- sary. There will be no judging. The party will take the place of the Lions' annual Halloween parade. For this Marietta Halloween Parade, they have tested their bat- to be staged on Monday nite, tery radio for reception in- Oct. 30, and sponsored by side the concrete block shel- the Marietta Junior Cham- ter. It works well. Now they are interested in whether or not Conrad has made as careful preparations for orial park. In case of rain, transmission of information the parade will be held the for shelter as they have made in their Florin base- ment. Smith discusses his thoughts "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" ter and the implications freely. He has no fears that he and his family could and would live in hibernation for two weeks in perfect peace and harmony. Not only that, he almost hinted he'd like to try it if anyone wanted to make it worth while. Why did the Smiths build their shelter? They feel that they should do what they can to survive. Wether it is the correct thing to do and whether or not they actually would survive is something they do not know. However, a high rate of speed near the held at the Florin hall on they do feel an urgency to Mount Pleasant church. Friday night, Oct. 27, begin-do the best they know for themselves and for their two children. The areas to be included dear children. Schloser, deputy coroner, are all of Mount Joy town- Talking with Smith, one is Two other occupants of the ship, all of Mount Joy bor- not completely satisfied that car—Jacob Sherk, 18, Eliza- cugh, all of Rapho townshipe feels he actually is doing something which will make it possible for him and his children to survive even though he has put money, and workers, officials and though he has put money, apparently was uninjured their workers and any inter- energy, time and a great deal of planning into the The meeting is one of sev-project. scene and later showed up at eral being held throughout But, whatever happens, he as the home of a sister in Eliza- the county under the direct-has done the best he can as ion of the central commit- he sees it now—no one can do better than that.

Working with hunters and farmers to improve relation- ships between the two groups takes 75 per cent of his time sary, but may be worn. The film will begin at 8:00 p.m. Costumes are not neces- sary. There will be no judging. The party will take the place of the Lions' annual Halloween parade. For this Marietta Halloween Parade, they have tested their bat- to be staged on Monday nite, tery radio for reception in- Oct. 30, and sponsored by side the concrete block shel- the Marietta Junior Cham- ter. It works well. Now they are interested in whether or not Conrad has made as careful preparations for orial park. In case of rain, transmission of information the parade will be held the for shelter as they have made in their Florin base- ment. Smith discusses his thoughts "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" ter and the implications freely. He has no fears that he and his family could and would live in hibernation for two weeks in perfect peace and harmony. Not only that, he almost hinted he'd like to try it if anyone wanted to make it worth while. Why did the Smiths build their shelter? They feel that they should do what they can to survive. Wether it is the correct thing to do and whether or not they actually would survive is something they do not know. However, a high rate of speed near the held at the Florin hall on they do feel an urgency to Mount Pleasant church. Friday night, Oct. 27, begin-do the best they know for themselves and for their two children. The areas to be included dear children. Schloser, deputy coroner, are all of Mount Joy town- Talking with Smith, one is Two other occupants of the ship, all of Mount Joy bor- not completely satisfied that car—Jacob Sherk, 18, Eliza- cugh, all of Rapho townshipe feels he actually is doing something which will make it possible for him and his children to survive even though he has put money, and workers, officials and though he has put money, apparently was uninjured their workers and any inter- energy, time and a great deal of planning into the The meeting is one of sev-project. scene and later showed up at eral being held throughout But, whatever happens, he as the home of a sister in Eliza- the county under the direct-has done the best he can as ion of the central commit- he sees it now—no one can do better than that.

Working with hunters and farmers to improve relation- ships between the two groups takes 75 per cent of his time sary, but may be worn. The film will begin at 8:00 p.m. Costumes are not neces- sary. There will be no judging. The party will take the place of the Lions' annual Halloween parade. For this Marietta Halloween Parade, they have tested their bat- to be staged on Monday nite, tery radio for reception in- Oct. 30, and sponsored by side the concrete block shel- the Marietta Junior Cham- ter. It works well. Now they are interested in whether or not Conrad has made as careful preparations for orial park. In case of rain, transmission of information the parade will be held the for shelter as they have made in their Florin base- ment. Smith discusses his thoughts "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" ter and the implications freely. He has no fears that he and his family could and would live in hibernation for two weeks in perfect peace and harmony. Not only that, he almost hinted he'd like to try it if anyone wanted to make it worth while. Why did the Smiths build their shelter? They feel that they should do what they can to survive. Wether it is the correct thing to do and whether or not they actually would survive is something they do not know. However, a high rate of speed near the held at the Florin hall on they do feel an urgency to Mount Pleasant church. Friday night, Oct. 27, begin-do the best they know for themselves and for their two children. The areas to be included dear children. Schloser, deputy coroner, are all of Mount Joy town- Talking with Smith, one is Two other occupants of the ship, all of Mount Joy bor- not completely satisfied that car—Jacob Sherk, 18, Eliza- cugh, all of Rapho townshipe feels he actually is doing something which will make it possible for him and his children to survive even though he has put money, and workers, officials and though he has put money, apparently was uninjured their workers and any inter- energy, time and a great deal of planning into the The meeting is one of sev-project. scene and later showed up at eral being held throughout But, whatever happens, he as the home of a sister in Eliza- the county under the direct-has done the best he can as ion of the central commit- he sees it now—no one can do better than that.

Working with hunters and farmers to improve relation- ships between the two groups takes 75 per cent of his time sary, but may be worn. The film will begin at 8:00 p.m. Costumes are not neces- sary. There will be no judging. The party will take the place of the Lions' annual Halloween parade. For this Marietta Halloween Parade, they have tested their bat- to be staged on Monday nite, tery radio for reception in- Oct. 30, and sponsored by side the concrete block shel- the Marietta Junior Cham- ter. It works well. Now they are interested in whether or not Conrad has made as careful preparations for orial park. In case of rain, transmission of information the parade will be held the for shelter as they have made in their Florin base- ment. Smith discusses his thoughts "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" ter and the implications freely. He has no fears that he and his family could and would live in hibernation for two weeks in perfect peace and harmony. Not only that, he almost hinted he'd like to try it if anyone wanted to make it worth while. Why did the Smiths build their shelter? They feel that they should do what they can to survive. Wether it is the correct thing to do and whether or not they actually would survive is something they do not know. However, a high rate of speed near the held at the Florin hall on they do feel an urgency to Mount Pleasant church. Friday night, Oct. 27, begin-do the best they know for themselves and for their two children. The areas to be included dear children. Schloser, deputy coroner, are all of Mount Joy town- Talking with Smith, one is Two other occupants of the ship, all of Mount Joy bor- not completely satisfied that car—Jacob Sherk, 18, Eliza- cugh, all of Rapho townshipe feels he actually is doing something which will make it possible for him and his children to survive even though he has put money, and workers, officials and though he has put money, apparently was uninjured their workers and any inter- energy, time and a great deal of planning into the The meeting is one of sev-project. scene and later showed up at eral being held throughout But, whatever happens, he as the home of a sister in Eliza- the county under the direct-has done the best he can as ion of the central commit- he sees it now—no one can do better than that.

Working with hunters and farmers to improve relation- ships between the two groups takes 75 per cent of his time sary, but may be worn. The film will begin at 8:00 p.m. Costumes are not neces- sary. There will be no judging. The party will take the place of the Lions' annual Halloween parade. For this Marietta Halloween Parade, they have tested their bat- to be staged on Monday nite, tery radio for reception in- Oct. 30, and sponsored by side the concrete block shel- the Marietta Junior Cham- ter. It works well. Now they are interested in whether or not Conrad has made as careful preparations for orial park. In case of rain, transmission of information the parade will be held the for shelter as they have made in their Florin base- ment. Smith discusses his thoughts "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" ter and the implications freely. He has no fears that he and his family could and would live in hibernation for two weeks in perfect peace and harmony. Not only that, he almost hinted he'd like to try it if anyone wanted to make it worth while. Why did the Smiths build their shelter? They feel that they should do what they can to survive. Wether it is the correct thing to do and whether or not they actually would survive is something they do not know. However, a high rate of speed near the held at the Florin hall on they do feel an urgency to Mount Pleasant church. Friday night, Oct. 27, begin-do the best they know for themselves and for their two children. The areas to be included dear children. Schloser, deputy coroner, are all of Mount Joy town- Talking with Smith, one is Two other occupants of the ship, all of Mount Joy bor- not completely satisfied that car—Jacob Sherk, 18, Eliza- cugh, all of Rapho townshipe feels he actually is doing something which will make it possible for him and his children to survive even though he has put money, and workers, officials and though he has put money, apparently was uninjured their workers and any inter- energy, time and a great deal of planning into the The meeting is one of sev-project. scene and later showed up at eral being held throughout But, whatever happens, he as the home of a sister in Eliza- the county under the direct-has done the best he can as ion of the central commit- he sees it now—no one can do better than that.

Working with hunters and farmers to improve relation- ships between the two groups takes 75 per cent of his time sary, but may be worn. The film will begin at 8:00 p.m. Costumes are not neces- sary. There will be no judging. The party will take the place of the Lions' annual Halloween parade. For this Marietta Halloween Parade, they have tested their bat- to be staged on Monday nite, tery radio for reception in- Oct. 30, and sponsored by side the concrete block shel- the Marietta Junior Cham- ter. It works well. Now they are interested in whether or not Conrad has made as careful preparations for orial park. In case of rain, transmission of information the parade will be held the for shelter as they have made in their Florin base- ment. Smith discusses his thoughts "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" ter and the implications freely. He has no fears that he and his family could and would live in hibernation for two weeks in perfect peace and harmony. Not only that, he almost hinted he'd like to try it if anyone wanted to make it worth while. Why did the Smiths build their shelter? They feel that they should do what they can to survive. Wether it is the correct thing to do and whether or not they actually would survive is something they do not know. However, a high rate of speed near the held at the Florin hall on they do feel an urgency to Mount Pleasant church. Friday night, Oct. 27, begin-do the best they know for themselves and for their two children. The areas to be included dear children. Schloser, deputy coroner, are all of Mount Joy town- Talking with Smith, one is Two other occupants of the ship, all of Mount Joy bor- not completely satisfied that car—Jacob Sherk, 18, Eliza- cugh, all of Rapho townshipe feels he actually is doing something which will make it possible for him and his children to survive even though he has put money, and workers, officials and though he has put money, apparently was uninjured their workers and any inter- energy, time and a great deal of planning into the The meeting is one of sev-project. scene and later showed up at eral being held throughout But, whatever happens, he as the home of a sister in Eliza- the county under the direct-has done the best he can as ion of the central commit- he sees it now—no one can do better than that.

Working with hunters and farmers to improve relation- ships between the two groups takes 75 per cent of his time sary, but may be worn. The film will begin at 8:00 p.m. Costumes are not neces- sary. There will be no judging. The party will take the place of the Lions' annual Halloween parade. For this Marietta Halloween Parade, they have tested their bat- to be staged on Monday nite, tery radio for reception in- Oct. 30, and sponsored by side the concrete block shel- the Marietta Junior Cham- ter. It works well. Now they are interested in whether or not Conrad has made as careful preparations for orial park. In case of rain, transmission of information the parade will be held the for shelter as they have made in their Florin base- ment. Smith discusses his thoughts "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" ter and the implications freely. He has no fears that he and his family could and would live in hibernation for two weeks in perfect peace and harmony. Not only that, he almost hinted he'd like to try it if anyone wanted to make it worth while. Why did the Smiths build their shelter? They feel that they should do what they can to survive. Wether it is the correct thing to do and whether or not they actually would survive is something they do not know. However, a high rate of speed near the held at the Florin hall on they do feel an urgency to Mount Pleasant church. Friday night, Oct. 27, begin-do the best they know for themselves and for their two children. The areas to be included dear children. Schloser, deputy coroner, are all of Mount Joy town- Talking with Smith, one is Two other occupants of the ship, all of Mount Joy bor- not completely satisfied that car—Jacob Sherk, 18, Eliza- cugh, all of Rapho townshipe feels he actually is doing something which will make it possible for him and his children to survive even though he has put money, and workers, officials and though he has put money, apparently was uninjured their workers and any inter- energy, time and a great deal of planning into the The meeting is one of sev-project. scene and later showed up at eral being held throughout But, whatever happens, he as the home of a sister in Eliza- the county under the direct-has done the best he can as ion of the central commit- he sees it now—no one can do better than that.

Working with hunters and farmers to improve relation- ships between the two groups takes 75 per cent of his time sary, but may be worn. The film will begin at 8:00 p.m. Costumes are not neces- sary. There will be no judging. The party will take the place of the Lions' annual Halloween parade. For this Marietta Halloween Parade, they have tested their bat- to be staged on Monday nite, tery radio for reception in- Oct. 30, and sponsored by side the concrete block shel- the Marietta Junior Cham- ter. It works well. Now they are interested in whether or not Conrad has made as careful preparations for orial park. In case of rain, transmission of information the parade will be held the for shelter as they have made in their Florin base- ment. Smith discusses his thoughts "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" ter and the implications freely. He has no fears that he and his family could and would live in hibernation for two weeks in perfect peace and harmony. Not only that, he almost hinted he'd like to try it if anyone wanted to make it worth while. Why did the Smiths build their shelter? They feel that they should do what they can to survive. Wether it is the correct thing to do and whether or not they actually would survive is something they do not know. However, a high rate of speed near the held at the Florin hall on they do feel an urgency to Mount Pleasant church. Friday night, Oct. 27, begin-do the best they know for themselves and for their two children. The areas to be included dear children. Schloser, deputy coroner, are all of Mount Joy town- Talking with Smith, one is Two other occupants of the ship, all of Mount Joy bor- not completely satisfied that car—Jacob Sherk, 18, Eliza- cugh, all of Rapho townshipe feels he actually is doing something which will make it possible for him and his children to survive even though he has put money, and workers, officials and though he has put money, apparently was uninjured their workers and any inter- energy, time and a great deal of planning into the The meeting is one of sev-project. scene and later showed up at eral being held throughout But, whatever happens, he as the home of a sister in Eliza- the county under the direct-has done the best he can as ion of the central commit- he sees it now—no one can do better than that.

Working with hunters and farmers to improve relation- ships between the two groups takes 75 per cent of his time sary, but may be worn. The film will begin at 8:00 p.m. Costumes are not neces- sary. There will be no judging. The party will take the place of the Lions' annual Halloween parade. For this Marietta Halloween Parade, they have tested their bat- to be staged on Monday nite, tery radio for reception in- Oct. 30, and sponsored by side the concrete block shel- the Marietta Junior Cham- ter. It works well. Now they are interested in whether or not Conrad has made as careful preparations for orial park. In case of rain, transmission of information the parade will be held the for shelter as they have made in their Florin base- ment. Smith discusses his thoughts "ugliest", "prettiest", "fun- niest" and "most original" ter and the implications freely. He has no fears that he and his family could and would live in hibernation for two weeks in perfect peace and harmony. Not only that, he almost hinted he'd like to try it if anyone wanted to make it worth while. Why did the Smiths build their shelter? They feel that they should do what they can to survive. Wether it is the correct thing to do and whether or not they actually would survive is something they do not know. However, a high rate of speed near the held at the Florin hall on they do feel an urgency to Mount Pleasant church. Friday night, Oct. 27, begin-do the best they know for themselves and for their two children. The areas to be included dear children. Schloser, deputy coroner, are all of Mount Joy town- Talking with Smith, one is Two other occupants of the ship, all of Mount Joy bor- not completely satisfied that car—Jacob Sherk, 18, Eliza- cugh, all of Rapho townshipe feels he actually is doing something which will make it possible for him and his children to survive even though he has put money, and workers, officials and though he has put money, apparently was uninjured their workers and any inter- energy, time and a great deal of planning into the The meeting is one of sev-project. scene and later showed up at eral being held throughout But, whatever happens, he as the home of a sister in Eliza- the county under the direct-has done the best he can as ion of the central commit- he sees it now—no one can do better than that.