26th Annual Ice Follies At Hershey Soon

The 26th annual edition of Shipstads and Johnson Ice Follies, featuring 167 skaters and ten lavish productions, opens an 11-day engagement at Hershey Sports Arena, Tuesday, November 23, continuing through Saturday, December 9, Sundays excepted.

In its first quarter century, Ice Follies attracted more than 54 million patrons, more than double the total population of the 22 cities visited by the big ice show on its current tour. When the Shipstads and Johnson presented their first show in Tulsa, Oklahoma, Nov. 7, '36, the cast numbered a mere 28. Richard Dwyer, Carol Carverly, Germany's Ina Bauer, Janet Champion, Harryburg's Barbara Myers, Lee Carroll and the Meldrum Twins are among the featured performers. Unusual lighting devices and unique prop and setting innovations highlight the productions which include Ikky's Magic Circus, Rhythm of the City, Take Me Out to the Ball Game, Happy Hunting Ground and Amore D' Italia, a Venetian court scene, complete with gondolas.

Comedy, as usual, plays an important role. Veteran comedian Mr. Frick the acrobat, Kermond Brothers, Wall & Dova the Scarecrows and the animal act, team of Doug Sears and Dick Cooper handle the fun-making assignments.

Donald and Andree Jacoby, Betty Jean Clark and Frank Carroll, and the new team of Oscar Durseau and Doris Skiffings also occupy featured billing.

Reni, famed Hollywood designer, has created 467 original costumes for the new production, while more than $500,000 has been spent in re-styling the show.

Richard Dwyer, Follies' handsome 26-year-old star from Hollywood, now in his 12th tour, skates a dashing pair routine with one of the lovely Ice Follies, and later appears to solo in a glamorous production entitled Jewels of Fashion.
