

B.P.W. Holds First Meet of New Year

The first meeting of the new year of the Mount Joy Business and Professional Women's Club was held Monday evening, Jan. 22, at Hostetter's banquet hall. Mrs. J. Robert Keller, club president, presided at the meeting. The program was in charge of the National Security Committee with Mrs. Shirley Forney, chairman. Mr. George McGinness, assistant professor of physical education at F&M College spoke on National Security and Flying Saucers. Mr. McGinness said we are concerned about the peace of the world and how we are related to world peace. He said we could be brought into physical combat with Russia by a sneak attack, or by a Comedy Act Wins Talent Show at D.H.S.

Four Donegal senior boys, Dennis Naugle, Robert Young, David Smith and Harry Brooks—placed first with a comedy act in Donegal high school's ninth and twelfth grade talent show last week before a student assembly.

Sylvia Shields placed second with a baton twirling act and Margo Buller placed third with a marimbo solo.

Other contestants: Linda Morton, baton twirling; Robert Baker, James Peters, Jack Frank, James Shank, Robert Derr, Glenn Sauder, Gray Greiner, and Peter Holmes, in a "Sports Spectacular" comedy routine; Carol Buchenauer, tympani solo accompanied by pianist Thelma Heisey; Debra Wolgemuth, recitation; Linda Shields, Brenda Pardo, and Catherine Harnish, vocal trio; Howard Mummau, one-man quartet and comedy; Carolyn Blantz, tap dance; Lois Thuma, organ solo; Carolyn Blantz, Sylvia Foltz, Jean Waltz, and Linda Wetzel, girls' dance.

The judges were Mrs. Ver-gingrich, English instructor, Donald Staley, social studies instructor, Janet Brubaker and Richard Nornhold, 11th graders, and Sharon Morris on and Charles Theobald, 10th graders. The talent show was sponsored by the Student Council and directed by Miss Lily Martin, guidance counselor.

Winners of the ninth and twelfth grade contest will compete in a school assembly on Friday, January 26, with winners named earlier in the tenth and eleventh grade talent show.

Mount Joy Boy To Play In Recital

George F. Broske II, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Broske, 217 School Lane, Mount Joy will appear in a piano recital at Elizabethtown College on Saturday, Jan. 27 at 8 p.m. in Rider Memorial Hall.

The recital will feature pre-college and post-college piano pupils of Prof. Nevin W. Fisher, instructor of music at Elizabethtown College. George is in the eighth grade of the Donegal High School. In addition to playing the piano, he plays French horn in the high school orchestra and the junior high school band.

The public is invited to this recital.

First and Second Year Shorthand Students Students In Contests

Winners have been announced in a shorthand contest for the first and second year shorthand students of Donegal high school.

The first year shorthand winners: first, Ann Barnhart; second, Linda Aument; third, Rosie Leese. Second year winners: first, Virginia Burris; second, Eva Flowers; third, Linda Huck.

Each contestant submitted a paper he had written in shorthand without a name. The papers were displayed and all the students in the classes voted for first, second and third place winners.

In another Donegal commercial project, second year shorthand students have a chance to be "Stars of Tomorrow." Each time a student has a mailable transcript, his paper is posted with his picture in a big

FOR THE BEST BUYS...IN EVERY SIZE... YOU'VE JUST GOT TO SEE YOUR FORD DEALER!

No wonder Ford had the greatest November-December in history!

We Ford Dealers were first with a totally new size car—Fairlane... We're first in compact size too, with the overwhelming acceptance of Falcon... And we're first in value in full-size cars, with Galaxie, the car that gives you all the essential features of cars costing hundreds of dollars more!

What's more, we broke every sales record in Ford's history for November and December! Stands to reason then, that since we're selling so much more we can trade just that much higher... so we really can offer the best buys in every size!

We LIKE to demonstrate...
We LIKE to make deals...
We LOVE to keep you happy after you buy!
