

Landisville-Salunga
Mrs. William K. Risser

noon. Mrs. Richard Godshalk, scout leader, Harry Shepardson and Mrs. Kenneth Hess accompanied the 16 girls.

Flora Alice Hollenback 88, of Silver Spring Rd., Landisville, died recently at the home of her daughter, Grace, wife of Gordon Bartholomew.

Formation of a new Explorer Post of Boy Scouts was made possible by the Hempfield Farmers & Sportsman's Assoc. The group voted to sponsor the post and made a cash donation toward its formation. The first meeting of the group, to be known as Explorer Post 141, was held Thursday, February 8th at the Landisville Elementary School gymnasium with 18 boys present. Dennis Bentzel was elected president; Terry Bigler, vice president; Richard Rohrer, secretary; Charles Simmons, treasurer; Dana Godfrey, quartermaster; Laurence Carey and Tom Hull, cabinet representative of the Landisville State College and Ed Gledhill and Robert Bentzel are advisers of the group, which is open to boys aged 14 to 18 who are in the ninth grade or above in the Landisville-Salunga area. Interest- served 4 years in the U. S. Air Force. He is employed at Myers Jewelry Store, Manheim.

Registration was held for children who will be in first grade next term (1962-63) and who are presently not enrolled in kindergarten or the Feb 7 at the Landisville elementary school #1, opposite the Camp Meeting grounds. Children who have reached their sixth birthday on or before January 31, 1963 were eligible to register. Two Hempfield high school seniors have received certificates of merit from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation in recognition of

Meats Are In The Buyers Spotlight
Beef steaks and roasts and juice. The banana and grape markets remain firm but feature prices are expected in some foodmarkets. Potatoes, turnips, vine-ripened tomatoes, celery and sweet potatoes are better buy items at the fresh vegetable counter. Cabbage and sweet corn prices have declined somewhat from recent high levels while onion, carrot and lettuce prices remain high. Lettuce quality is reported to be rather poor. Frozen vegetable stocks were up 20 per cent in the fall of 1961 with peas, beans, corn, spinach and lima beans being major contributors. Fresh market losses have improved the demand for frozen vegetables and promises to hold up prices on these items. Canned vegetables started the season in moderately larger supply than a year ago but movement has been good and prices will likely remain near present levels.
