present Handel's "Messiah".
The group will be under the direction of Richard Kline, chairman of the Hempfield music department.

The Rev. G. Martin Ruess, pastor of the Zion Lutheran Church, Landisville was elected Dean of the City district. Lancaster County's 48 Lutheran churches have been divided into two districts, Lancaster City and North Lancaster, in a new organizational plan. Five local Clergymen and one layman have been elected to posts in the newly organized Central Pa.
Synod of the United Lutheraan Church in America.

ics department at Hempfield Union High School. Mr. Griffith is an engineering graduate of the Virginia Polytechnic Institute and is employed at the Lambert-Hudnut Mfg.
Laboratory at Lititz. A November wedding is planned.

A 35-mile-per-hour speed limit on the Chiques Road from the East Hempfield Twp. line to the West Hempfield Twp. line was approved at a recent meeting of the Hempfield Township supervisors.
Supervisors reappointed Samuel E. Long, 1766 Linwood Ave. to a 5-year term on the township planning Commission and announced that 10 fire policemen would be employed to help curb vandalism during the Halloween season.
A demonstration of gyroscopes was held Thursday October 4 in the Junior High School auditorium for the Landisville elementary school children. This program was held at 9 a.m. and any interested parent could also attend.
