Two Assemblies At Donegal Hi
 Students at Donegal High School saw two assembly programs recently about two widely different themes. Mrs. Ethel Broske, music supervisor of the Donegal Union School District in the elementary schools, and Dr. David E. Schlosser, President of the Donegal School Board, presented a piano recital at Donegal, Monday morning, Oct. 29, in assembly. Friday, the students saw a filmstrip "The Greeley School Bus Tragedy" about the school bus accident in Colorado, in December, 1961, in which 26 children were killed.

Lightweight Power

A recently developed, four cylinder, nickel stainless steel engine supplies 175 horsepower although it weighs only 175 pounds. It is being tested in sports cars and boats.

Tryouts for parts in the Hempfield Community Chorus production of Handel's "Messiah" to be held on Nov. 25 in Hackman auditorium of Hempfield Union high school took place on Sunday, Oct. 28 from 2 to 4 p.m. at the school. Solo tryouts are scheduled for November 4 from 2 to 4 p.m. Persons attending church in the area or living in the school district are eligible. Richard Kline, chairman of the Hempfield music department, is director. Approximately 65 voices have joined the group.

The Junior Christian Endeavor and Junior Choir

groups of the Landisville Church of God held a Halloween party at the church Friday, Oct. 26 from 7 to 9 p.m. Members came masked and games were played and refreshments served.

Hempfield Union School Board

recently held a meeting and leased another school bus for East Petersburg pupils attending the Landisville Elementary School. The bus contract was awarded to H. H. and L. H. Warfel, Willow Street R2.

The Salunga Women's club will meet Monday evening, November 5 at 7:45 p.m. in the Salunga Church of the Brethren. Mrs. Charles Liehty will be guest speaker and demonstrator with the topic "Creating for Christmas" Mrs. Magdalene Peifer, a member of the club, will read the club history. Hostesses to serve the evening refreshments are Mrs. Doris Findley, Mrs. Sally Hamilton, Mrs. Kathryn Brubaker and Mrs. Barbara Hess.

The afternoon and evening circles of the United Lutheran Church Women of the Zion Lutheran church in Landisville will hold a joint meeting for a program on Taiwan (Formosa) at the Church on Thursday at 1 p.m. The speaker will be Mrs. James M. Berkebile, wife of the professor of Chemistry at Elizabethtown College. The couple spent 20 months in Formosa while Dr. Berkebile was with the State Dept. of Education. During this time Mrs. Berkebile was a member of the Taipei International Women's Clubs.

State Police Trooper Ed-ward Grazer, of the Lancaster Barracks, spoke to the 144 students enrolled in the baby sitting clinic sponsored by the Hempfield Jaycee-Ettes at Hempfield Union high school on Monday, Oct. 29.

The afternoon and evening circles of the United Lutheran Church Women of the Zion Lutheran church in Landisville will hold a joint meeting for a program on Taiwan (Formosa) at the Church on Thursday at 1 p.m. The speaker will be Mrs. James M. Berkebile, wife of the professor of Chemistry at Elizabethtown College. The couple spent 20 months in Formosa while Dr. Berkebile was with the State Dept. of Education. During this time Mrs. Berkebile was a member of the Taipei International Women's Clubs.

She will illustrate her talk on Thursday with slides of Formosa and a display of articles made on the island. In keeping with the Taiwan theme, a rice dessert will be served by members of the afternoon circle. Mrs. Harvey Gross is chairman of the program. The Christmas stocking project will be completed at the meeting. The church nursery will be open for small children.
