ABUNDANT LIFE

by ORAL ROBERTS

THE COST OF CHRISTIANITY

Tommy was admiring Roger's new streamlined bicycle. "It's a real beauty!" he exclaimed. "Yes. But it sure cost a lot. I saved my money for two years to buy it," Roger answered. "Anything worthwhile costs something, and if we want to build a worthwhile Christian life and have the peace and joy that only Christ can give, we must be willing to pay the price."

For a long moment Christ and the rich young ruler stood facing each other. "What good thing should I do, that I may have eternal life?" the young man asked. "Go and sell that thou hast... and follow me," Jesus answered.

All that I have? My wealth, position, a great future? he pondered. At Jesus' words, the young man's eager smile quickly died as did his desire for eternal treasures. A great apostle could have been born, but instead a nameless young man went his way.

There is an old saying that you don't get something for nothing. This is true. We must put something in, if we are to get something out. We must give, if we are to receive. To receive the blessings and miracles of God, we must be willing to surrender ourselves to Him. A life surrendered to Christ is the way to personal and eternal triumph and joy.

Jesus Christ paid the price for our salvation by His crucifixion on Calvary. All we need do to receive this salvation and eternal life is to accept it and be willing to obey God. We must yield our lives completely to Him. We cannot decide what we are going to do and then ask God to bless our plans, but we must put Him first and self last. God knows the future and what is best for us. Therefore, we should faithfully follow the plan He originates for our lives.

One of the great rewards in being a Christian is to know that our lives are in God's care and that they are being used to His glory and to help others. In Christ our energies are turned away from the unimportant things of life and directed toward worthy goals. No matter what we may have accomplished with our lives in the past, God can do still more with them. When we surrender our lives completely to Him, we can draw upon His ability and upon the abundance of His spiritual wealth.
