'Sub-Debs'—Your Youngest Ladies—Entertain At Vacation Lunch

It's a smart mother who teaches manners by serving simple food nicely to her youngest child and friends. "Company" for lunch or snack keeps the youngsters quieter in the heat of a summer's day, and Mother makes light work of the occasion with simple Zoo Sandwiches and pink 'n' pretty strawberry-flavored milk drink made in an instant by just stirring in the powdered product. Use your cookie cutters to make the Zoo Sandwiches with both white and brown breads, and the fillings can be as simple as peanut butter and jelly, or any quick combination favored by your youngsters.

Strawberry Milk
For each serving, pour milk in glass. Add 2 heaping teaspoons quick strawberry-flavored mix; stir briskly until blended. If desired, garnish with strawberry.

Strawberry Punch
½ cup quick strawberry-flavored mix
1 12-ounce bottle gingerale
2 cups milk
1 pint vanilla or strawberry ice cream

Combine quick strawberry-flavored mix and milk in punch bowl; mix well. Add ginger ale. Add small scoops of ice cream; sprinkle each scoop with additional quick strawberry-flavored mix.
