comment, "I thought you might like to use this in your paper, Mother."

We pass it along to you: "What Abraham Lincoln had lived today, the Rotary club would have provided him with a number of good books, the Lions club a reading lamp, while the Kiwanis club would have supplied his cabin with a wooden floor.

"RESULT: There would have been no Abraham Lincoln."

were not satisfactory. A scholarship would have paid his way through college. A case worker would have supplemented the wages with county relief. He would have received a subsidy for rail splitting, another one for raising some crop he was grieved to raise anyway, and still another subsidy for not raising a crop he had no intention of raising. The rail splitter's labor union would have increased his wages periodically. "RESULTS: There would have been no Abraham Lincoln."

Does anyone really want to return to the "good old days" if wages offered days?"
