No-Watch Oven Meal

Had a busy day? If so, you will like this extra good meal that can be popped in the oven in minutes and left to bake while you do other things, or relax for a few minutes.
Convenient canned foods shorten preparation time. First prepare the Tomato Corn Scallop. Next combine sliced canned white potatoes, cream of celery condensed soup, diced pimiento and shredded cheddar cheese for Baked Au Gratin Potatoes. Slice canned ham, arrange in a shallow baking pan and lightly brush with a mixture of brown sugar and prepared mustard. All bake for about an hour in a moderate oven.
Serve crisp relishes, cole slaw or a green salad with the meal. For dessert, canned peaches are a good choice.

Tomato Corn Scallop

1 medium size onion	1 can (1 lb.) tomatoes
3 tablespoons butter or margarine	3/4 cup coarse cracker crumbs
2 eggs	1/4 cup chopped parsley
1 can (1 lb.) cream style corn	1/2 teaspoon salt
	1/4 teaspoon pepper

Cook chopped onion in butter until tender but not brown. Mix beaten eggs with rest of ingredients. Pour into a baking dish. Bake in a moderate oven (375 degrees) about one hour, until firm. Six to eight servings.

Purple Plum Plumage for Sundaes

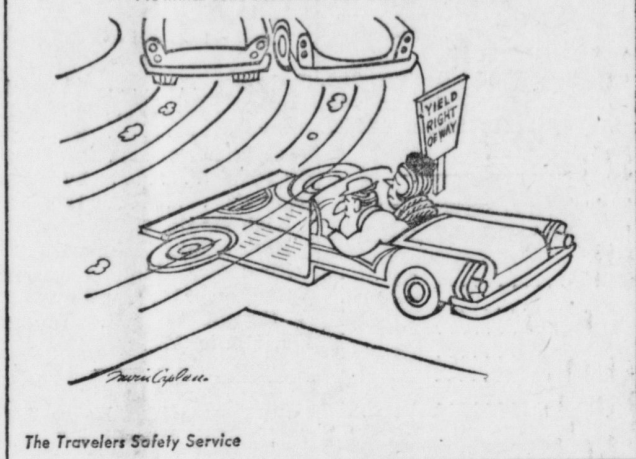

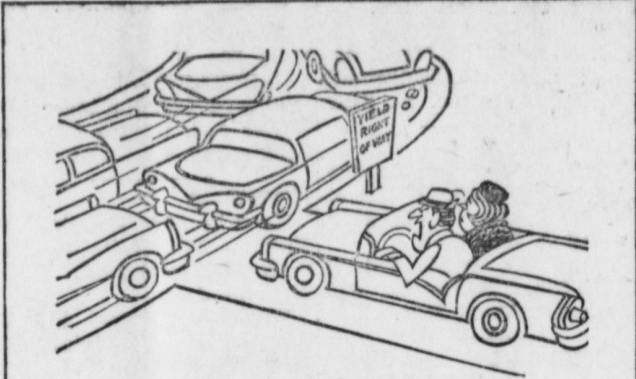

Easy to fix and so elegant for entertaining, "Plum Peppermint Sundaes" will top off dinner with a flavorful flourish.
Juicy canned purple plums provide tanginess in the sauce, which uses some of the extra heavy syrup from the can. Plum halves bedeck each serving of the handsome dessert.
The 1962 pack of purple plums in the Pacific Northwest set a new tonnage record. Cans of the tree-ripened fruit are now abundant in grocery stores to help you dress up fruit salads, meat sauces and countless desserts.

Plum Peppermint Sundaes

1 can (1 lb., 15-oz.) purple plums in extra heavy syrup	1/4 cup chopped walnuts
2 tablespoons Sherry wine (optional)	2 tablespoons crushed peppermint candy
	1 quart vanilla ice cream
	6 individual sponge cakes

Drain plums, reserving 1/4 cup syrup. Pit and halve fruit. Save 6 halves for garnish and chop remainder coarsely. Combine chopped plums, syrup, Sherry, walnuts and candy. Place ball of ice cream on each sponge cake and top with plum sauce. Garnish each serving with a plum half. Makes 6 servings.

Tornadoes Hit In Every State

In the United States, tornadoes are an everyday occurrence. They are not confined to any particular area; they have slashed at every state in the Union.
Nor are they peculiar to any particular season of the year; spring, summer, autumn and winter - all have been ravaged by these whirlwinds. The worst year was 1957 when 864 of them - more of

Assisted by Mrs. Joseph Germer, who operated a projector, the speaker showed pictures of old photos of Mt. Joy, including houses, railroad and street scenes.
Both women had spent many hours collecting both old and new products of Mt. Joy and had them on display.
For instance, they had a piece of woolen material from the Brown factory, one of the first shoes manufactured by Gerberich-Payne, old toys and machines from Grey Iron, old bottles from the brewery and even one of the very newest products—a seat belt being produced by New Standard.
A fascinating talk to both "old timers" and newcomers alike, the program served to show the changes and the continuity of Mount Joy's economy.
Mrs. Albert, who is an elementary school teacher at Grandview, said that the economy showed that Mount Joy had not been tied too closely to the sick 'big three' of Pennsylvania—railroads, steel and coal.
