Teen Talk Translators Needed For Events in March of Dimes

What's a gym jam? A Salk hop? A sock shuffle? Do you give up? Want a translation?

All three are names of dances that will be held by teenagers across the country this January in honor of the 25th Anniversary March of Dimes.

The authority for this information is a blonde, hazel-eyed beauty who is national chairman for the Teen Age Program (TAP) of The National Foundation-March of Dimes.

She's Suzie Willett, 18, Wilmington, Del., a freshman at Russell Sage College, Troy, N.Y., where she is studying nursing. She became a March of Dimes volunteer several years ago because she "wanted to help people."

An enthusiastic worker, she traveled the state of Delaware and showed high school students how they could help carry out the March of Dimes programs to fight birth defects, arthritis and polio—a trio of crippling concerns to young people as well as to older age groups.

Is Top Tap
This fall and winter, as the top TAP, she's been corresponding and talking with teens all over the country, advising them how they can make themselves useful in their home towns.

"Just about all the teens I've met in my travels for the March of Dimes really want to do something constructive," Suzie says. "Most of them join TAP groups because this gives them an opportunity to contribute to the life of their community."

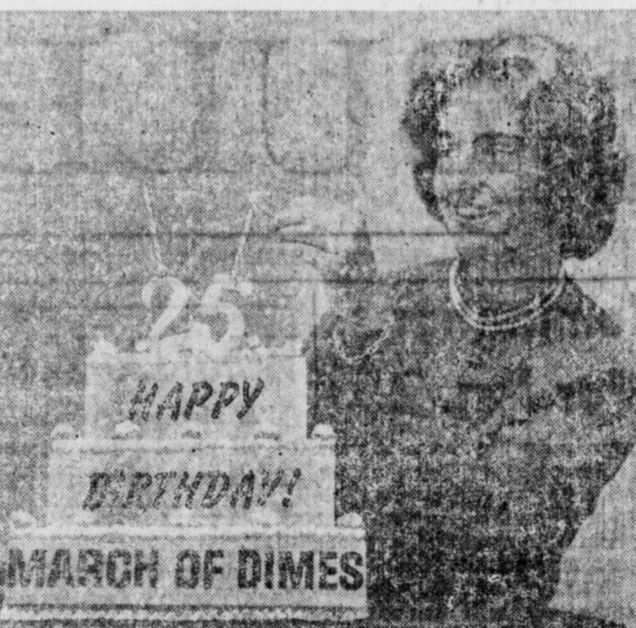

There have been several national surveys which show that Dr. Jonas Salk, who developed the killed-virus polio vaccine solely with March of Dimes support, is a hero to teens. It's easy to see why. Dr. Salk is a dedicated man, absorbed in his humanitarian work. Teens are very idealistic and they gladly give their respect to anyone who earns it.

"I'm going to be a nurse because I want a career that involves doing something necessary and useful. I've worked as a hospital volunteer and I know that I'll be happy helping patients who can't help themselves."

Suzie, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Albert V. Willett, Jr., spent last summer as a Candy Stripe volunteer in Delaware Hospital in Wilmington. Her father, a chemist, is an executive with the Du Pont Company.

"I'm aware that occasionally a tiny minority of teens get into trouble and make headlines," Suzie says, "but I'll bet that if they found work which they enjoyed, even this small fraction would stay out of trouble. I think that most of all, a teenager wants to feel respected and needed. I guess in that sense, we're no different from anyone else."

Popular Events Planned
From telephone and letter surveys among TAPs all over the country, Suzie reports that the following TAP activities are shaping up as the most popular benefits for the 1963 March of Dimes:

Suzie Willett, 18, Wilmington, Del., is national chairman of the Teen Age Program (TAP) for the 25th Anniversary March of Dimes held, as always, during the month of January.

• Dances head the list, ranging from informal sock hops to Silver Anniversary Balls, glittering events which call for formal gowns and gardenias.

• Street sales—there seems to be an endless supply of items which TAPs plan to sell. These include tiny plastic Rainbow Cruisers, balloons, lollipops, peanuts, donuts and carnations, among dozens of other products.

• Auctions—club members auction off their services to the highest bidder for a day or an afternoon, working as secretaries, baby sitters, shoe shiners and the like.

"I'm thrilled that TAPs are so willing to pitch in and work for the March of Dimes," Suzie says. "This just proves one thing I've felt for some time—most of today's teens are idealistic, and they are searching for ways to express their idealism."

Keep Heating Plant in Repair

Paradoxically, fire is most helpful but also cruellest during the winter months. The cold weather season—when heating units are in operation—is the time of year when a large share of the human suffering and property damage is caused by fire. Most of the nation's fire toll in lives and injuries is needless.

Studies show that every tenth fire in United States is caused by a defective heating unit.

The National Board of Fire Underwriters suggests that you can help keep your home safe from fire by following these suggestions:

1—Inspect your basement or furnace room, and throw out old paint pails, oily rags, newspapers, magazines, or other combustible rubble that may be stored there.
2—If the heating unit was not checked before winter started, call your serviceman and have it inspected now.

PREVENT WINTER DRIVING WOES

The National Safety Council says: Always carry a pair of reinforced tire chains ready for use when needed during severe snow or ice conditions. They help avoid skid-wrecks and prolonged traffic delays. Police say chainless vehicles are responsible for chaotic traffic tie-ups.

Entertain D.H.S. Faculty at Dinner

Several members of the Donegal High School faculty were entertained at a dinner given as a class project by the senior girls' 12-E Home Economics class recently at the school.

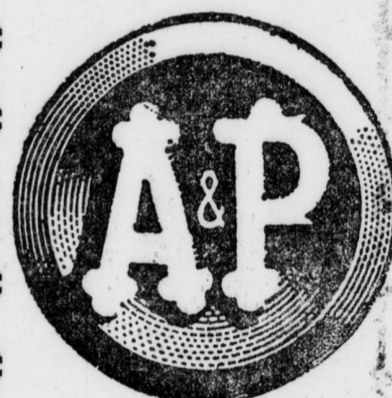

There were two menus prepared by Kathy Ginder and Carol Zinc. Kathy's menu included fried chicken, peas and carrots, cherry pie a la mode, hot buns, butter, and tea. Carol's menu included individual meat loaves, baked potatoes, carrots, pear salad, mince meat pie, and hot rolls.

The guests included Mrs. Nancy Ginder, Mrs. Naomi Houseal, Miss Lily Martin, and Mrs. Vera Gingrich. Mrs. Almeida Scheid is the group's teacher.

The project was aimed to prepare the girls for planning and serving meals later in life. The teachers, as well as being guests, judged the girls on their project.
