Mrs. Charles L. Moore,

"AND THEN PRINCE CHARMING"

Do you remember the undivided attention you gave to a story-teller . . . when you first heard Cinderella, Snow White, or some gallant warrior bold? It seems so long ago. And yet, that attention reveals within ourselves more than dreams; it reveals a secret longing after mysteries, after the things we do not understand, but somehow love.

Religion, in a way, is somewhat like that. Everybody is religious! But, of course, everybody doesn't call it that! Nevertheless, there is in the heart of man a secret yearning, a wish, a hope for things eternal. We express those wishes in church.

And somehow God hears our wishes and consoles and explains. That is a very important part of the Church; for it is a place of consolation and understanding, a place where wishes (prayers) are heard, where the mysteries of life gain new meaning.

BONDAGE

Civilization begins in bondage.

Out of bondage comes faith in God.

With faith in God comes courage.

With courage men acquire their liberty.

After liberty comes abundance.

Then, after abundance, selfishness.

After selfishness, complacency.

And then after complacency, the gimme stage.

And after that, back to bondage.
