Two Girls Tie In Voting For May Day Queen

It was inevitable that sooner or later it would happen! This was the year. The year that Donegal high school crowned two May Queens!

The Queen always is selected by vote of the student body. But, this year there was a tie and thus, at the Thursday night May 2 annual May Day celebration held on the lawn of the school, Mimi O'Connor and Carol Gibble were given co-Queen honors.

When votes were counted following the recent election, each of the two girls had received 153.

Miss O'Connor is daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Connor, 4 East Main St., Mt. Joy, and Miss Gibble is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gibble, Wasp Street, Marietta.

The Queens were crowned by last year's queen, Donna Singer, Maytown.

The Queen's Court

Making up the queens' court were the following: seniors, Suzanne Martin, Lora Lee Foley, Phyllis Pisko, and Sandra Wolgemuth; juniors, Kathleen May, Darlene Thome; sophomores, Susan Musser, Ann Foley; freshman, Theresa Toth.

Donna Wetzel was flower girl, and Dennis Shireman served as crown bearer.

Arrangements for the affair were made by the following faculty members: Mrs. Mary Sarver, Mrs. Almeda Scheid, Mrs. Lloyd Kline, Miss Elsie Henry, Kenneth Depoe, Lloyd Kline, Warren Hayman, and H. Morrell Shields.
