chology.

The Hempfield Jaycee-ettes held installation of officers at an inaugural dinner recently in the Hillcrest Inn, Elizabethtown R. D.

The hiring of two township policemen - one fulltime and one parttime - was approved at a recent meeting of East Hempfield Township supervisors. The policemen will be officially named and begin work as soon as qualified men are selected from applications currently under review.

Ten teachers were hired by the Hempfield Union School Board recently and a new district-wide position, director of curriculum was filled.
Named to the curriculum post Paul H. Cunningham Jr., president of the Legion Auxiliary.

ORIENTATION DAY
On Friday, May 10, the area 6th grade students and their teachers were personally invited to visit the Donegal Annex on May 24th to participate in an Orientation Day program.

Mrs. Timmons, the Annex Guidance Counselor, and four 7th grade students, Jo-Ann Huck, Linda Houseal, Barry Meckley and Thomas Safko visited these 6th grades and extended personal invitations to all. A variety of questions were asked regarding "life in Junior H.
S." Time permitted all too few of these but their Orientation visit to the Annex will give them an opportunity to again raise questions.

The change from elementary to secondary schooling is a complete one and there is proven value in offering an early welcome to these new students. The opportunity to be physically present in their new surroundings has given the Orientation Day idea a many schools across the nation.

The following girls have been selected as cheerleaders many schools across the for the '63-64 school year at tion.
