Cubs And Fathers Camp Out

Local Cub Scouts and fathers attended their annual camp-out at Heisey's Ranch, Rheems, July 20 and 21.

Thirty-three Cubs and 14 adults attended the two-day affair, which was planned by Winfield Hendrix, Cub Scout committee chairman, and his committee.

A highlight of the weekend was a special campfire Saturday night when three Cubs passed from Cubbing into Boy Scouting. They were Michael Maurer, Craig Gainer and Eugene Baringer. The three were transferred from Cubmaster Richard Hoover to Scoutmaster Harold Etsell. Sunday morning the Rev. T. E. Bowers, pastor of the local Church of God, conducted services at the camp site.

Champ Named

Following an extended marble tournament within the Pack 136, Joseph Funbar was named the winner of the Pack. Tournaments were held the past few weeks among the individual dens. Den winners were Arl Haas of Den 1; Larry Fackler, Den 2; Joseph Funbar, Den 3; William Blantz, Den 4; Steve Booth, Den 5; Stanley Haines, Den 6; and Gilbert Welliver, Webelos. Ray Bell was in charge of the contest.

Trip Planned

A bus trip to Philadelphia has been planned for the Cubs for Saturday, August 3. The Cubs will visit the U. S. Navy Yard where they will be given a tour of the base including a visit to a submarine. Following lunch at the base, the group will visit the Aquarama Showplace of sea life. The climax of the trip will be a visit to the Independence Hall vicinity.

All Cubs, Scouts and Explorers plus adult Cub Scout volunteers will attend a Western Lancaster County

Fellowship Wednesday, August 7, at the Elizabethtown Community Park. The evening will include a picnic lunch, games, and preparations for the coming year's activities.

New Year Planned

Committee members will meet Wednesday, August 14, at 7 o'clock, to plan the coming year's activities. The Cubmaster and committee chairmen announced that new dens will be organized prior to September for all eight-year-old boys who are interested in Cubs.

Home From Hospital

Walter Gipe, who operates the local emergency police system and base station of the Zone 7 fire network, is home after a week in a Lancaster hospital for examination, tests and treatment.

His station, located in his mobile home on Apple Tree alley, was manned around the clock for him by Mrs. Frank Young, Christ Walter, Ray Myers, George Coppenheaver and several of the Friendship Fire company firemen. Chief John Myers this week expressed deep appreciation for the help given the company by the assistance in manning the emergency system.

DYER REUNION

The Dyer reunion will be held at Sico Park on August 4, (Instead of August 18), starting at 12 noon, Games at 2 o'clock.

Bring your lunch, there will be games and prizes for young and old.

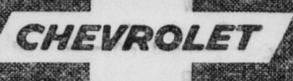

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Matter of Loyalton visited at the home of Lester Breneman on Monday evening.
