

Real Cool Florida Orange Sherbet!

On a dazzling midsummer day, what looks cooler or tastes more refreshing than orange sherbet—especially when it's homemade and rich in pure, natural orange flavor. And this delicious sherbet, with its old-fashioned richness, is simple to make.

The convenient six-ounce can of frozen Florida orange juice concentrate, undiluted, gives tart-sweet flavor and fresh color to the sherbet, while whipped cream makes it wonderfully smooth and creamy. When it's firm, scoop it into your nicest sherbet glasses and garnish with fresh mint and chilled or canned Florida orange sections for a pretty, extra cool touch.

Florida Orange Sherbet

- | | |
|----------------------------|---|
| ¾ cup milk | 1 can (6 ounces) frozen Florida orange juice concentrate, thawed, undiluted |
| 2 eggs, slightly beaten | ½ teaspoon salt |
| ½ cup sugar, divided | |
| 1 cup heavy cream, whipped | |

Combine milk, eggs and ¼ cup of sugar in top of double boiler over hot water. Cook, stirring constantly, until mixture coats spoon. Cool. Mix in remaining ¼ cup sugar, orange juice concentrate and salt. Pour into refrigerator tray and freeze until ice crystals form around edges. Remove from freezer and fold in whipped cream. Return to freezer until firm, at least 3 hours or overnight. YIELD: 1 quart.

flag.

One reader — a long-time subscriber of the Bulletin who now lives out of town—picked up an error in this matter of flag etiquette.

The truth of the matter is there is one other flag which rightly may fly above Old Glory. That flag is the United Nation's flag, which at the U. N. headquarters may appear atop the banner of the U. S.

Treasury Department records show that tens of millions of American families now own more than $46 billion worth of U. S. Savings Bonds Series E and H.
