B.P.W. Club Holds Meet

The September meeting of the Mount Joy Business and Professional Women's club was held Monday evening at Hostetter's, beginning with dinner at 6:30 for 47 members and four guests. Mrs. Ruth Sinegar, president, was in charge. Group singing was led by Mrs. Ethel Broske with Miss Esther Walters at the piano.

Mrs. Evelyn Naugle, chairman of the public relations committee, was in charge of the program, which featured a talk by John W. Beattie, estate planning officer of the Lancaster County National bank. He was introduced by Miss Lois Miller. His topic was "You Can Have Your Will Made Free—if You Can Afford the Price." A question and answer period followed his talk, which he illustrated with slides.

During a business meeting, Mrs. Ruth Sinegar, Mrs. Mary Sarver and Mrs. Yvonne Koser were elected delegates to the fall convention Oct. 12-13 at Allenberry, and Jane Fryberger, Mildred Way and Jeanette Germer were named alternates. The Red Lion club will serve as hostesses for the convention.

A committee was appointed to make a float for the Mount Joy Halloween parade. National Business and Professional Women's Week will be observed Oct. 6-12.

Kathleen May, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward May, 144 North Market Street, Mt. Joy, was a special guest of the club as Girl of the Month

PARKING LOT

Blacktopping of a portion of the big parking lot on Apple Tree alley which is owned by the E. U. B. church is scheduled to begin within the next few days.

The lot is located immediately north of the church and includes a portion which recently was excavated to the level of the rest of the area.

The Women's Association of the Mount Joy Presbyterian church will hold a rummage sale in the old Joy Theatre building on E. Main street, beginning at 8:30 a.m. on Friday, Oct. 11.
