500 Persons On Bikes Die

Some 500 persons were killed last year in collisions involving bicycles. Keystone Automobile Club revealed in warning motorists, parents and school-age children of the extra caution necessary now because of the greater number of bikes in use, the increasing highway congestion and the early arrival, day by day, of dusk & darkness.

"Three hundred and sixty of those killed were between the ages of 5 and 14 years", said Edward P. Curran, Keystone's Safety Director. "The next highest fatality rate occurred among persons aged 15 to 24, with fifty dead."

"Those grim figures indicate clearly the pressing necessity for intensifying efforts to make motorists and bike riders alike more acutely aware of the dangers inherent in having children involved in highway traffic.

"To begin with, bikes should always be in first-class mechanical condition and have lights and warning reflectors. And cyclists must be duly impressed with the fact that they must obey all traffic signs and signals and observe all common-sense rules laid down for their safety.

"Motorists and trucks also must be kept on the alert for bikeriding children. Particularly during the hours when youngsters are on the way to and from school. And, when they can be expected to be riding after school around their home neighborhoods. Children often prove changeable and unpredictable in their quick actions and reactions, so the motor-vehicle driver must, always be certain not to take a bicyclist's intentions or riding ability too much for granted. Be ready to stop quickly at all times, should be his credo."

Eligibility for G. I. loans does not extend beyond July 25, 1967 for any veterans of World War II, nor beyond January 31, 1975 for any Korean veteran, the Veterans Administration cautions.

Prayer Of The Week

The prayer this week is by Samuel McComb:

"O God, as this day closes, humbly I thank Thee for all that it has brought me; for its joys and also for its trials. Thou hast given me life and hast delivered me from many evils. Thou continuest daily to shower Thy mercies upon me. What can I make for all Thy benefits?"

"Strengthen me, O God, that I may love Thee with all my heart, with all my soul, and with all my might. Pardon, O Father, all my shortcomings and help me to overcome them. Grant me strength to forgive all who may have wronged me, and give me the courage to seek pardon of all whom I may have offended. O God, who neither sleepest nor slumberest, spread over me the shelter of Thy peace; guard my home and all dear to me. May Thy blessing of peace rest upon all Thy children! Amen."
