then knocking over everything in sight until the Manheim Township affair a week ago Saturday. And — that game will likely be replayed by the fans for a long time to come.

The Columbia triumph was as inevitable as some of the other games this season. The Indians carved out early leads in the first quarter and then romped along to victory. It has been a way of winning all season.

The ball game was hardly under way in a high-wind situation until Donegal marched on the ground from the 48 to a TD. The shouts had hardly died down before John Gohn picked off a Columbia pass attempt and set up the second score.

Only half dozen plays later Ace Roger Grove carried from the five to score.

The Tribe counted again near the end of the second period when Grove fired a long pass into the arms of end John Brown, who crossed the goal line.

That was the story. Columbia made a couple of what appeared to be serious threats but the stalwart Donegal line was not to be manhandled and both ended in goal-line failures.

Next Saturday's game brings down the curtain on the Indians' best season. And — one which tops it will be something wonderful to see.

The Manheim Central game is called for 2 p.m.

Grove, whose speed and broken field running has been one of the sensations of the season, carried over his 18th and 19th touchdowns of the campaign and sent his scoring mark to 128.

Special Services

Rev. Boyd will conduct services at the Calvary Bible Church, New Haven & Henry streets, beginning Monday, Nov. 11, at 7:30 p. m. and continuing nightly through Sunday, Nov. 17. He also will minister at the 10:30 Worship Hour on Sunday, the 17th. Rev. Boyd will present his message in colored pictures and Biblical messages.

He was a staff member of the Wheaton College Archaeological Expedition at the Old Testament site of Dothan in northern Palestine.

The color pictures, titled "Read Stones with living messages", include numerous sites of the Holy Land, Egypt and Petra, and show excavated sites of buried Bible cities, including the Dead Sea Caves and Scrolls. Many ancient objects discovered in these Bible-land cities pinpoint and confirm many Scripture verses in both Old and New Testaments. Some of the pictures show how the Bible is building the new nation of Israel today.

Mrs. Boyd, known as Aunt Peggy presents "Gospel Magic" or gives an object lesson each night for the boys and girls before the showing of the pictures.

Several excavated objects will be on display. The public is invited.
