

WEDDINGS

KAUFHOLD — NEWCOMER

Miss Marian L. Newcomer, 815 Locust St., Columbia, daughter of Elwood Newcomer, Maytown, and the late Mrs. Mary Newcomer, became the bride of James A. Kaufhold Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Kaufhold Sr., 126 Walnut St., Columbia, on Saturday, Nov. 16, at 10 a.m. in St. Peter's Catholic church Columbia, with the Rev. Francis McCollough officiating.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Thomas J. Ortman, the bride was attended by Mrs. Rose Welsh, Columbia, matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joanne Gainer, and Miss Patty Ann Ortman, cousin of the bride. All are of Columbia.

The bride attended Donegal high school and is employed at Hesteco Mfg. Co., Elizabethtown.

A graduate of Lancaster Catholic high school and the Lancaster Business School, the bridegroom is employed by the H and D Mfg. Co. He served four years in the U.S. Navy.

The couple will reside at 33 N. Sixth St., Columbia.

Pre-nuptial showers were given by Mrs. Rose Welsh, Mrs. Joanne Gainer, Miss Patty Ann Ortman, and Mrs. Mary Ortman, and by the bride's co-workers.

The parents of the groom entertained at a rehearsal party. A wedding breakfast was given by the bride's aunt Mrs. Mary Ortman.

SMITH — TRIPPLE

In a simple, double-ring ceremony Friday night, Nov. 15, at the Trinity Lutheran church, Miss Cynthia L. Tripple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde M. Tripple, of Pinkerton road, became the bride of R. Bruce Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Smith of Maytown.

The 7 o'clock rites were read by the Rev. W. Lester Koder, pastor.

The bride was attended by Miss Carolyn Sloan of Mount Joy and the bridegroom by James Houscal of Maytown.

Mrs. Smith attended Wesley college at Dover, Del., and is employed at Cargill, Marietta. The bridegroom is a student at Elizabethtown college. Both were graduated from Donegal high school with the class of 1961.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony.

The couple will live, for the present, at the home of the bridegroom's parents.

Bishop to Speak

The Rev. John T. Heistand, Bishop of Harrisburg will be at St. Luke's Episcopal church in Mount Joy (Sunday, Nov. 24 to confirm and preach at the 11 a.m. service. The candidates will be presented by the Rector of the church, the Rev. Donald H. Feick.

The Confirmation service consists of two parts. In the first, the candidates ratify and confirm on their own decision and responsibility the promises made for them or by them at their Baptism.

The second part of the service continues the ancient patterns of the office, in which the candidates are "confirmed" by God for the fulfillment of their promises by the strengthening gifts of the Holy Spirit imparted to them through the laying on of hands by the Bishops of the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church.

Members of the community are invited to attend.
