

Brooks Voted "Coach of Year"

Al Brooks, after only two seasons with Donegal high school, has been named football "Coach of the Year," in the Conference of Roses.

The high honor came last week as all coaches in the league cast ballots to pick an outstanding mentor. Brooks received eight of the twelve votes.

A native of Independence, Mo., the D.H.S. football head coach was two years at Lenox, Iowa, before coming to pilot the Indians.

Last year, his first here, the Tribe won three games, equaling the best season Donegal had ever had since football was begun in 1956.

The season just closed, however, was something entirely new for the local fans. Brooks' team set a fast, hard pace, winning game after game and finally finishing the season with only two losses against eight wonderful victories, and claiming a third share of the conference championship.

These are the facts upon

Radio Commentator To Speak At D.H.S.

Friday, Nov. 29, beginning at 7:30 p.m., in the auditorium of Donegal high school, Ray Brubaker, formerly of this community, will report on a mounting interest in a proposed amendment to the which the selection rested heavily.

Brooks, who teaches driver education at Donegal, lives at 604 West Main street with his wife, Elsa, and their three children, Allen, 5; Susan, 3; and Brian, 2.

U. S. constitution concerning prayer and Bible reading in public schools.

The topic of his talk will be "What Will Be Madelyn Murray's Next Move?"

As a representative of the National Committee of the Preservation of Prayer and Bible Reading in Public Schools, he has been speaking in Florida, Georgia, Virginia, Maryland, Pennsylvania and Washington, D. C. in recent weeks.

Brubaker now lives in St. Petersburg, Fla.

The public is invited to the Friday night meeting.

CHRISTMAS AT SCHOOL

Christmas programs will be held in the schools of the Donegal Union District, as usual.

Announcements were made last week that five programs already are scheduled as follows:

Marietta — December 9.
Maytown — December 10 and 12.
Grandview — December 17.
Seiler — December 10
High School — December 21

Enemies are the heritage of success. Nobody envies a failure.

Flameless electric heating fits!

If you look at all the savings, you'll see just how REASONABLE flameless electric heating really is.

Electric heating . . .

- needs no chimney, boiler room or bulky fuel storage equipment;
- does away with periodic cleaning bills, burner adjustment or repairs . . . in fact, the need for any service is rare.
- costs 25% less than it did just two years ago, thanks to PP&L's new, low, total electric living rate.

See for yourself why more than 3000 PP&L customer families are now enjoying flameless electric home heating. Visit or call your Reddy Kilowatt Recommended Electric Home Heating Dealer, today—or call PP&L for a free estimate of your home heating costs.

