FLORIN NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

The scheduled Thank offering service for the W.S.W.S. of the Florin E.U.B. church, has been postponed until December 8, so the morning service could be held as a memorial service for the late President, John F. Kennedy.

The Community residents will gather to give thanks on Wednesday evening, Nov. 27, 7:30 in the Cross Roads Brethren in Christ Church. Rev. Bowers, pastor of the Church of God, will preach the sermon.

Next Sunday, Dec. 1, is the first Sunday in Advent, which calls to mind the reasons for which Christ came into the world.

The Florin EUB Men held their meeting at 6:45 p.m. on Monday, Nov. 25 and at 7:15 left to attend services at the Mount Joy E U B Church. Speaker was Ted Dencher.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Shoemaker called on Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kreider of Mt. Joy R1 Sunday afternoon.

Raymond Rutledge, freight agent for the P. R. R. for the Mount Joy - Florin area is a patient at the St. Joseph's hospital.

Wayne Campbell, Columbia, called on Mr. and Mrs. William Campbell of Florin Ward on Sunday.

Florin Church of the Brethren will hold its Thanksgiving service, Thursday morning at 9:30 o'clock. Guest speaker is Paul Forney of Swatara Hill.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Barr and son Stuart of Lake Worth, Fla. and Mrs. Jane Gladfelter of Mount Joy called on Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Kauffman on Wednesday.

The Florin Fire Company will hold a dance on Friday evening at the Donegal annex in Mount Joy.

Conveyed to Rehabilitation Center

The Mount Joy Fire Company ambulance took Stephen Leatherman, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Leatherman, Mount Joy R1, from the St. Joseph's hospital to Johnstown Rehabilitation center on Monday, Nov. 18. Stephen had suffered a broken neck and paralysis when his motorcycle collided with a car near Ephrata on August 20. The three months since then he has been in St. Joseph's hospital, Lancaster. He is still paralyzed from the chest down, with his fingers also involved.

He was accepted by the State Vocational Rehabilitation Bureau for rehabilitation training at the Johnstown Rehabilitation center.

Leatherman was transferred to Johnstown in the new Mount Joy Fire Company ambulance. The ambulance, driven by Elwood Young and Robert Williams, started the journey at 7:45 a.m., and returned to Mount Joy at 6:15 p.m., having covered 397 miles. Near Florin the ambulance detoured from the main road to drive around the farm buildings where Leatherman had been farming prior to his accident. His 97-year-old great grandmother was there in a wheelchair to wave a goodbye to him, and his grandparents as well. The patient traveled facing front and was able to enjoy the scenery. He was accompanied by the nurse, Mrs. Drace, and his mother. His father has already returned to Tanganyika where he is a missionary, and where the paralysis patient was born and spent the first 15 years of his life.

The ambulance service was provided by five Sunday School classes and a few individuals of the Mount Joy Mennonite church, of which Leatherman is a member.

HOLD MEETING

The ladies auxiliary of the Mount Joy Fire company met Nov. 21 with 22 members present. Mrs. Esther Laughman became a new member at this time. Announcement was made of the Christmas party to be held Dec. 12 at 6:30 p.m. at Hostetter's.

Nominations for new officers were as follows: Edith Etsell, president; Evelyn Naugle, first vice-president; Myrtle Parsons, second vice-president; Dorothy Chapin, financial and recording secretary; Grace Geltmacher, treasurer; Thelma Heisey, cor. secretary; Helen Rice, chaplain, and interim chair-lady, Kathryn Geltmacher.

The ambulance service was provided by five Sunday School classes and a few individuals of the Mount Joy Mennonite church, of which Leatherman is a member.
