ESCAPE TO FREEDOM

We heard of a remarkable escape from behind the Iron Curtain not long ago. We do not remember reading about it in the newspapers, but the perpetrators are now citizens, so we suppose that we can safely record it. Our hero was a fire chief in a Hungarian border town. Daily he took some portable treasures to work with him and hid them in the corners of the truck, stuffing clothes into the hoses. And on the day, he dressed his family and a few friends in helmets and fire coats, turned on the siren, and rode through the barrier with no questions asked. —Selected

There's no limit to the height a man can attain by remaining on the level.

A life lived just to satisfy one's self never satisfies anybody.

You learn more by letting the other fellow tell you all he knows than you can by telling him all you know.
